

Section 2. All acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith to be and the same are hereby repealed. Repeal.

APPROVED—The 22d day of April, A. D. 1927.

JOHN S. FISHER

No. 228

AN ACT

Making the power of taxation of cities of this Commonwealth security for the taking, injury, or destruction of private property for public use, without the entry of a bond.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That in all cases where cities of this Commonwealth are or shall be required to give or tender security for the taking, injury, or destruction of private property for public use, the funds raised, or proper and lawful to be raised, by the power of taxation in and by said cities shall be pledged and are hereby made security to the owner or owners of private property so taken, injured, or destroyed, for all damages which they may sustain on account of the taking, injury, or destruction of their property for public use by said cities; and such cities shall not be required to give or tender any further security or to give or tender any bond or bonds whatever: Provided, however, That if and when, by appropriate petition, it shall appear to the proper court that the power of taxation of any city is not sufficient security in a particular proceeding, said court may require said city to give or tender bond therein with surety. Cities.
Taxes to be security for taking of private property.
Bonds not required.
Proviso.

Section 2. All acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith, or supplied hereby, be and the same are hereby repealed, to the extent of such inconsistency. Repeal.

APPROVED—The 22d day of April, A. D. 1927.

JOHN S. FISHER

No. 229

AN ACT

Authorizing counties of the fourth class to arrange for and pay the premiums on the bonds required of delinquent tax collectors.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That each county of the fourth class may, at the cost of the county, arrange for and pay the premiums on the bonds of delinquent tax collectors who are required to give a bond for the faithful performance of their duties. Counties of fourth class.
Premiums on bonds of delinquent tax collectors.

Section 2. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed. Repeal.

APPROVED—The 22d day of April, A. D. 1927.

JOHN S. FISHER