Section 2. That section two hundred and ten of the said act be and the same is hereby reenacted to read as follows:

Section 210 re-enacted.

Section 210. Service of Process.—Serving of process in any action, rule, order, or legal proceeding may be made on any foreign insurance company, association, or exchange, licensed to transact business in this Commonwealth, by registered mail or by leaving the same in duplicate in the hands of the Insurance Commissioner or his deputy at the Harrisburg office. One copy, certified by the Insurance Commissioner or his deputy as having been served upon him, shall be deemed sufficient evidence thereof, and service upon the Insurance Commissioner or his deputy as attorney shall be deemed valid service upon the company, association, or exchange.

Service of process on foreign insurance company.

When legal process is served upon the Insurance Commissioner as attorney for a foreign company, association, or exchange, he shall forthwith forward one of the duplicate copies of the process served on him to its secretary or attorney in fact, or, in the case of a company, association, or exchange of a foreign country, to its resident manager in the United States. Where attachments are so served, the Insurance Commissioner shall give immediate notice thereof to the company, association, or exchange by telegraph. As a condition of valid and effective service and of the duty of the Insurance Commissioner in the premises, the plaintiff in each such process shall pay to the Insurance Commissioner, at the time of service thereof, the sum of two dollars, which the said plaintiff shall recover as taxable costs in the case if he prevails in the suit. The Insurance Commissioner shall keep a record of all such processes, which shall show the day and hour of service and where and by whom served.

Copy to be forwarded to company.

Costs to be advanced by plaintiff.

Record of process.
