AN ACT

To amend clauses (a) and (c) of section one thousand eight hundred and two of the act, approved the ninth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws, one hundred seventy-seven), entitled "An act providing for and reorganizing the conduct of the executive and administrative work of the Commonwealth by the Executive Department thereof and the administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers thereof, including the boards of trustees of State Normal Schools, or Teachers Colleges; abolishing, creating, reorganizing or authorizing the reorganization of certain administrative departments, boards, and commissions; defining the powers and duties of the Governor and other executive and administrative officers, and of the several administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers; fixing the salaries of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and certain other executive and administrative officers; providing for the appointment of certain administrative officers, and of all deputies and other assistants and employes in certain departments, boards, and commissions; and prescribing the manner in which the number and compensation of the deputies and all other assistants and employes of certain departments, boards and commissions shall be determined," as amended, providing for the acquisition, holding, management, control, protection, maintenance, utilization, and regulation of additional lands; to extend State forests so as to prevent soil erosion, the silting up of reservoirs, to control stream flow, to extinguish interior holdings, and for the establishment of fire observation towers and stations.

Clauses (a) and (c) of section 1802, act of April 9, 1929 (P. L. 177), as amended by section 1, act of July 16, 1935 (P. L. 1052), further amended.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That clauses (a) and (c) of section one thousand eight hundred and two of the act, approved the ninth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws, one hundred seventy-seven), entitled "An act providing for and reorganizing the conduct of the executive and administrative work of the Commonwealth by the Executive Department thereof and the administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers thereof, including the boards of trustees of State Normal Schools, or Teachers Colleges; abolishing, creating, reorganizing, or authorizing the reorganization of certain administrative departments, boards, and commissions; defining the powers and duties of the Governor and other executive and administrative officers, and of the several administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers; fixing the salaries of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and certain other executive and administrative officers; providing for the appointment of certain administrative officers, and of all deputies and other assistants and employes in certain departments, boards, and commissions; and prescribing the manner in which the number and compensation of the deputies and all other assistants and employes of certain departments, boards and commissions shall be determined," as amended by section one of the act, approved the sixteenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five (Pamphlet Laws, one thousand fifty-two), are hereby further amended to read as follows:

(a) With the approval of the State Forest Commission, to acquire, in the name of the Commonwealth, by purchase, gift, lease, or condemnation, and hold as State forests, subject to the conditions of any such lease, and subject to such reservations, if any, of mineral rights, stumpage rights, rights of way, or other encumbrances, as the department and the State Forest Commission deem to be consistent with such holding, any lands, including tax delinquent lands, which, in the judgment of the department, the Commonwealth should hold, manage, control, protect, maintain, utilize, and regulate, as State forests or for reforestation, and adding to and extending the existing State forests for the purpose of lessening soil erosion and silting up of reservoirs; control the flow of streams and extinguish interior holdings; or for the establishment and maintenance of fire observation towers and stations, and such adjoining lands as may be deemed necessary to control, maintain, and develop such towers and stations, and to furnish access to them: Provided, That the purchase price of any such lands shall not exceed ten dollars per acre, except such as are acquired for fire observation tower and station purposes, and [that] the amount expended for the acquisition of lands for State forest purposes, in any biennial appropriation period, shall not exceed the appropriation for that purpose for such period, and the amount expended for other land acquisitions shall not exceed appropriations made for such purposes.

Administrative Code.

(c) To hold, manage, control, protect, maintain, utilize, develop, and regulate, the occupancy and use of all lands, heretofore or hereafter acquired, owned, leased, and maintained as State forests for reforestation, for extending existing State forests, for the purpose of lessening soil erosion, the silting up of reservoirs, to control stream flow, and to extinguish interior holdings, and for fire observation tower and station purposes, together with the resources thereof.

No. 71

AN ACT

Requiring county officers and persons formerly occupying county offices in counties of the first class to pay over to the county treasurer for safekeeping certain unclaimed moneys, and providing for the payment of such moneys out of the county treasury to claimants, and for the escheat of unclaimed moneys.

Unclaimed moneys received by county officers.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That whenever any moneys shall have been paid over to any county officer in any county of the first class which do not belong to such county officer, and no provision is made by law for the payment over of such moneys into the county treasury, if no claim for the payment over of such moneys shall be made by the party legally entitled thereto within a period of one year after the same shall have been paid to the county officer, or before the expiration of the term of office of such county officer, regardless of the time the same shall have come into his possession, then it shall be the duty of the county officer, upon the expiration of said one year period or upon the expiration of his term of office, as the case may be, to pay all of such moneys, together with any interest earnings thereon, over to the county treasurer for safekeeping, and to furnish to the county treasurer a statement of the source from which such moneys were derived, and the name of the person or persons, if known, who are legally entitled to such moneys.

Officer to furnish county treasurer with statement showing source of funds.

Copy of said statement to be filed with the controller.

A copy of such statement shall also be filed with the controller. Such moneys shall be deposited in a fund separate and apart from all other public moneys and shall not be paid out for any purpose whatever, except as provided by this act.

County treasurer shall issue a receipt to the county officer.

The receipt issued by the county treasurer showing the payment over of such moneys shall fully discharge the county officer or person making such payment and his surety from all liability whatever for the payment of such moneys to the person or persons legally entitled thereto.

Scope of this act.

The provisions of this section shall apply to all moneys, and the interest earnings thereon, in the hands of any county officer for the period of one year and more prior to the effective date of this act. The pro-
