AN ACT

To amend section two hundred sixty-five of the act, approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five (Pamphlet Laws, four hundred forty-eight), entitled "An act relating to fish; and amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating to fish in the inland waters and the boundary lakes and boundary rivers of the Commonwealth," making Sunday fishing with rods and lines lawful under certain circumstances.

Fishing Law.

Section 265, act
of May 2, 1925
(P. L. 448), amended.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That section two hundred sixty-five of the act, approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five (Pamphlet Laws, four hundred forty-eight), entitled "An act relating to fish; and amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating to fish in the inland waters and the boundary lakes and boundary rivers of the Commonwealth," is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 265. Sunday Fishing [Prohibited] Lawful, Exception. It is [unlawful] lawful to fish in any of the waters wholly within or on the boundaries of this Commonwealth for any species of fish [or with any device] during the open season therefor with not more than two rods and two lines and one hand line with not more than three hooks attached to either line, on the first day of the week commonly called Sunday, if the consent of the owner or lessee of the land, abutting on a stream or body of water and of the bed thereunder where the fishing is done, has first been secured, but no such consent shall be required to fish in the manner above provided in a stream or body of water on State owned or Federal lands, nor in a river or body of water the bed of which is publicly owned, except where the fishing is done from abutting land privately owned, in which case the consent of the owner or lessee shall first have been secured. It is unlawful to fish on any Sunday in any other manner than hereinbefore provided, or in streams and waters contrary to the provisions of this section. Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall on conviction, as provided in chapter fourteen of this act, be subject to a penalty of twenty-five dollars.

Sunday fishing permitted upon certain conditions.

Section 2. This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment.

When effective.
