AN ACT

To amend sections one and two of the act, approved the seventh day of June, one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws, six hundred sixty-seven), entitled "A supplement to an act, entitled 'An act for the government of cities of the second class,' approved the seventh day of March, one thousand nine hundred and one; regulating the certification, recording, advertising, and proof of passage of legislative acts of councils; and prescribing the effect of the production thereof when required as evidence," by allowing council to shorten the publications provided for.

Sections 1 and 2 of act of June 7, 1911 (P. L. 667), as amended.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That sections one and two of the act, approved the seventh day of June, one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws, six hundred sixty-seven), entitled "A supplement to an act, entitled 'An act for the government of cities of the second class,' approved the seventh day of March, one thousand nine hundred and one; regulating the certification, recording, advertising, and proof of passage of legislative acts of councils; and prescribing the effect of the production thereof when required as evidence," are hereby amended to read as follows:

Cities of the second class.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That hereafter in cities of the second class, when an ordinance or resolution shall have been duly enacted under the provisions of the act to which this is a supplement, said ordinance or resolution shall be certified by the [clerks of select and common] clerk of council, and shall be recorded in a book provided by the city for that purpose, which book shall be at all times open to public inspection. Within ten days after any ordinance or resolution becomes a law,

Ordinances and resolutions.

Record.

the same shall be published twice in each of the official newspapers of such city, together with the volume and page of the book in which the same is recorded, and the date of its becoming a law: Provided, Said publication shall not include any of the attesting signatures, except that of the mayor: And further provided, That instead of publishing an ordinance or resolution in full, an abstract thereof or the title thereof, as council may determine with reference, in any case, to its place of record, shall be a sufficient publication thereof.

Publication of title, etc.

Section 2. The record of all ordinances and resolutions, made and kept in accordance with this act, as well as all printed copies of ordinances and resolutions of [councils] council, published under the authority of [councils] council, or of this act, and transcripts of the record kept in pursuance hereof, certified by [either] the clerk of [select or common] council, shall be received in evidence for any purpose for which the original ordinance might be received, and shall be prima facie evidence that the same has been duly passed, recorded and published.

Certified record as evidence.

Section 2. This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment.

When effective.

No. 126

AN ACT

Requiring unemployment relief orders, issued by the State Veterans' Commission, to be presented for payment within a certain period, otherwise to be cancelled, and the moneys appropriated for their payment to be escheated to the Commonwealth, and credited to the current appropriation to such commission for unemployment relief purposes.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That the Department of Military Affairs shall, as of the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven, and periodically thereafter, take credit on its books and calculate as cash to the credit of the current appropriation to the State Veterans' Commission for unemployment relief purposes, all amounts held in the form of cash for the payment of unemployment relief orders issued by said commission, which have not been presented for payment within one year from the date of issue. The State Veterans' Commission shall cancel all such orders at the time credit is taken on its books and notify the State Treasurer accordingly in order that the full amount thereof shall be credited to the current appropriation to the commission for unemployment relief purposes.

Unemployment relief orders issued by State Veterans' Commission.
