

Insurance Commissioner, render such additional statement or statements concerning its affairs and financial condition as the Insurance Commissioner may, in his discretion, require. [furnish such other information as the Insurance Commissioner may deem necessary to a proper exhibit of its business and plan of working. The commissioner may at other times require any further statement he may deem necessary to be made relating to such society.]

Any such society which neglects to make and file its annual statement or other statements that may be required in the form or within the time herein provided shall forfeit a sum, not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100), for each day during which such neglect continues, and, upon notice by the Insurance Commissioner, its authority to do new business shall cease while such default continues.

AN ACT

To amend section three hundred and fifty-four of the act, approved the seventeenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (Pamphlet Laws, six hundred and eighty-two), entitled "An act relating to insurance; amending, revising, and consolidating the law providing for the incorporation of insurance companies, and the regulation, supervision, and protection of home and foreign insurance companies, Lloyds associations, reciprocal and inter-insurance exchanges, and fire insurance rating bureaus, and the regulation and supervision of insurance carried by such companies, associations, and exchanges, including insurance carried by the State Workmen's Insurance Fund; providing penalties; and repealing existing laws," to include contracts pertaining to pure endowments and annuities, policies of fire, marine and title insurance and contracts issued by assessment insurance corporations and all other forms of insurance contracts issued in Pennsylvania.

Insurance.

Section 354,
act of May 17, 1921 (P. L.
682), amended.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That section three hundred and fifty-four of the act, approved the seventeenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (Pamphlet Laws, six hundred and eighty-two), entitled "An act relating to insurance; amending, revising, and consolidating the law providing for the incorporation of insurance companies, and the regulation, supervision, and protection of home and foreign insurance companies, Lloyds associations, reciprocal and inter-insurance exchanges, and fire insurance rating bureaus, and the regulation and supervision of insurance carried by such companies, associations, and exchanges, including insurance carried by the State Workmen's Insurance Fund; providing penalties; and repealing existing laws," is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 354. Prohibiting the Use of Policies, Contracts, Etc., Unless Approved; Penalty.—It shall be unlawful for any insurance company, association, or exchange, doing business in this Commonwealth, to issue, sell, or dispose of any policy, contract, or certificate, covering life, health, accident, personal liability, fire, marine, title, and all forms of casualty insurance, or contracts pertaining to pure endowments or annuities, or any other contracts of insurance, or use applications, riders, or endorsements, in connection therewith, until the forms of the same have been submitted to and formally approved by the Insurance Commissioner, and copies filed in the Insurance Department, except riders and endorsements relating to the manner of distribution of benefits, and to the reservation of rights and benefits under any such policy, and used at the request of the individual policyholder, and except any forms which, in the opinion of the Insurance Commissioner, do not require his approval.

Such approval granted by the Insurance Commissioner shall become void upon any subsequent notice from the Insurance Commissioner, or upon any subsequent withdrawal of license or refusal of the Insurance Commissioner to relicense any such company, association, or exchange, or upon the subsequent passage of an act which would no longer make such contracts or related forms a fit subject for approval, except that this provision shall not affect contracts issued prior thereto.

Any person, corporation, insurance company, exchange, order, or society that shall, either as principal or agent, issue, or cause to be issued, any policy or contract of insurance within the Commonwealth, contrary to this section, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500.00).

The amendments to this section shall not be construed as extending the provisions of this section to domestic mutual fire insurance companies not heretofore subject to the provisions hereof.

Upon satisfactory evidence of the violation of this section by any such person, corporation, insurance company, exchange, order, or society, the Insurance Commissioner may, in his discretion, pursue any one or more of the following courses of action: (1) Suspend or revoke the license of such offending person, corporation, insurance company, exchange, order or society; (2) refuse, for a period of not to exceed one year thereafter, to issue a new license to such person, corporation, insurance company, exchange, order, or society; (3) impose a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) for each and every act in violation of this act. When the Insurance Commissioner shall take action in any of the ways above recited, the person, corporation, insurance company, exchange, order, or society aggrieved may appeal therefrom to the court of common pleas of Dauphin County.
