Marriage within prohibited degrees.

2. When a marriage has been heretofore or shall hereafter be, contracted and celebrated between two persons within the prohibited degrees of consanguinity or affinity, according to the tables established by law, it shall be lawful for either of said parties to obtain a divorce from the bond of matrimony, in the manner hereinafter provided; or Marriage after two years' absence of other.

3. If any spouse, upon any false rumor in appearance well founded of the death of the other, when such other has been absent for the space of two whole years, hath married or shall marry again, the party who has not remarried may at his or her return have his or her own marriage dissolved by divorce on the ground of bigamy, leaving the other party to remain with the second husband or wife. Any such action shall be instituted within six months after such return.

No. 11

AN ACT

Relating to the journals of the proceedings of the Senate and of the House of Representatives; requiring the keeping thereof and their publication in the Legislative Journal, and abolishing the separate publication of such journals.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Legislative Journal.

Section 1. The Senate and the House of Representatives shall each keep a journal of its proceedings as now required by the Constitution and laws of this Commonwealth. The Journal of the Senate and the Journal of the House of Representatives shall both be published in the Legislative Journal now provided for by law, which shall serve as the Journals of the Senate and of the House of Representatives respectively, in compliance with the requirements of section twelve of article two of the Constitution.

Separate publications discontinued.

Section 2. No separate publications shall be made of the proceedings of either the Senate or of the House of Representatives of the legislative session of one thousand nine hundred forty-three, or of any legislative session thereafter.

Section 3. Section eight of the act, approved the ninth day of June, one thousand nine hundred eleven (Pamphlet Laws, eight hundred forty-nine), entitled "An act providing for the preparation, contents, style, printing, and binding of the Legislative Journal, and the preparation, printing, and binding of the Journals of the Senate and House of Representatives; authorizing the appointment of official reporters; typewriters, clerks, and other employes; providing for the making of an appendix and index, the printing of wrappers or envelopes for mailing the Legislative Journal, and repealing all acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith," and section eight of the act, approved the twelfth day of July, one thousand nine hundred nineteen (Pamphlet Laws, nine hundred forty-one), entitled "An act providing for the preparation, contents, style, printing and binding of the Legislative Journal and its delivery and distribution; providing for the preparation, printing and binding of the Journals of the Senate and House of Representatives; authorizing the appointment of official reporters, expert typewriters, clerks and other employes, and providing for their compensation and mileage; providing for the making of an appendix and index; the printing of wrappers or envelopes for mailing the Legislative Journal; and repealing all acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith," are hereby repealed.

Section 8, act
of June 9, 1911,
P. L. 849,
repealed.

Section 8, act
of July 12, 1919,
P. L. 941,
repealed.

All other acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed in so far as they provide for the separate printing, binding, and distribution of the Journal of the Senate and the Journal of the House of Representatives.

Inconsistent acts
repealed.

Section 4. This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment.

Act effective immediately.

APPROVED—The 24th day of March, A. D. 1943.
