AN ACT

To add section six to the act, approved the seventh day of June, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws, six hundred), entitled "An act providing that appointive officers and employes, employed by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in its civil service, or by any department, bureau, commission, or office thereof, or by any county, municipality, township, or school district, shall not be deemed or held to have resigned or abandoned their offices or employments by reason of enlistment, enrollment, or draft in the military or naval service of the United States or any branch or unit thereof, in time of war or contemplated war; prohibiting the removal from their offices or employments of such officers and employes during the period of their service in the Army or Navy; directing that one-half of the salaries or wages of such officers or employes as have dependent wives, children, or parents, and not exceeding two thousand dollars per annum, be paid during the term of their service in the Army or Navy to such dependents; authorizing the employment during said term of substitutes to perform the duties theretofore performed by such officers or employes, respectively, and providing for the compensation of such substitutes," saving to members of the Pennsylvania Motor Police Force their right to increases in pay and certain advancements in rank.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. The act, approved the seventh day of June, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws, six hundred), entitled "An act providing that appointive officers and employes, employed by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in its civil service, or by any department, bureau, commission, or office thereof, or by any county, municipality, township, or school district, shall not be deemed or held to have resigned or abandoned their offices or employments by reason of enlistment, enrollment, or draft in the military or naval service of the United States or any branch or unit thereof, in time of war or contemplated war; prohibiting the removal from their offices or employments of section 6.

such officers and employes during the period of their service in the Army or Navy; directing that one-half of the salaries or wages of such officers or employes as have dependent wives, children, or parents, and not exceeding two thousand dollars per annum, be paid during the term of their service in the Army or Navy to such dependents; authorizing the employment during said term of substitutes to perform the duties theretofore performed by such officers or employes, respectively, and providing for the compensation of such substitutes," is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof a new section to read as follows:

Motor police shall not forfeit pay increases because of war service interruption.

Section 6. Any member of the Pennsylvania Motor Police Force, who shall in time of war or contemplated war, enlist, enroll or be drafted in the military or naval service of the United States or any branch or unit thereof, shall not thereby forfeit any right to any increase or increases in pay, which he would have received had his service as a member of the Pennsylvania Motor Police Force been continuous and uninterrupted during the period of his service, in the military or naval service of the United States; and in addition thereto, any member of the Pennsylvania Motor Police Force holding the rank of private second class at the time of his enlistment, enrollment or draft into such service of the United States shall, upon resuming his duties as a member of the Pennsylvania Motor Police Force, at the conclusion of such military or naval service, be given the rank of private first class in the Pennsylvania Motor Police Force.

Second class privates upon resumption of police duty following war service shall be given next higher rank.

Act effective immediately.

Section 2. The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment.
