AN ACT

To amend section four hundred and twenty A of the act, approved the seventeenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (Pamphlet Laws, six hundred eighty-two), entitled "An act relating to insurance; amending, revising, and consolidating the law providing for the incorporation of insurance companies, and the regulation, supervision, and protection of home and foreign insurance companies, Lloyds associations, reciprocal and inter-insurance exchanges, and fire insurance rating bureaus, and the regulation and supervision of insurance carried by such companies, associations, and exchanges, including insurance carried by the State Workmen's Insurance Fund; providing penalties; and repealing existing laws," by giving minors of the age of eighteen years and upwards full power and authority to make contracts of insurance or annuity with any life insurance company authorized to do business in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and to exercise all the powers, rights and privileges of ownership conferred on them under the terms of any and all such contracts applied for or issued to them, with the same force and effect as if they were of age.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

The Insurance Company Law of 1921.

Act of May 17, 1921, P. L. 682, section 420A, amended.

Section 1. Section four hundred and twenty A of the act, approved the seventeenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (Pamphlet Laws, six hundred eighty-two), entitled "An act relating to insurance; amending, revising, and consolidating the law providing for the incorporation of insurance companies, and the regulation, supervision, and protection of home and foreign insurance companies, Lloyds associations, reciprocal and inter-insurance exchanges, and fire insurance rating bureaus, and the regulation and supervision of insurance carried by such companies, associations, and exchanges, including insurance carried by the State Workmen's Insurance Fund; providing penalties; and repealing existing laws," which section was added to said act by section one of the act, approved the twenty second day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws, six hundred twenty-five), is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 420A. Minors May Enter into Insurance or Annuity Contracts and Have Full Rights, Powers and Privileges Thereunder.—That all minors in Pennsylvania of the age of eighteen years and upwards shall have full power and authority to make [all needful] contracts [to become members] of insurance or annuity with any life insurance company authorized to do business in the [State] Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, either domestic or foreign, and [shall have] to exercise all the powers, rights, and privileges of [ownerships] ownership conferred upon them under the terms of any and all such [life insurance, annuity] contracts [or otherwise] applied for or issued to them, and with full power to surrender, assign, [pledge, or receive dividends, or] modify, pledge, or change such contracts, and to receive any dividends thereon and generally to have the full power and authority in the premises that persons twenty-one years and upwards could and would have relative to any and all such contracts.

Section 2. This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment.

Act effective immediately.

APPROVED—The 22nd day of April, A. D. 1943.
