

Section 4. No county agricultural association hereafter incorporated and no county shall be entitled to the benefits of this act until such association or county shall have held two consecutive annual exhibitions of the character designated in the preceding section, nor shall such association or county receive any appropriation for their third and fourth years, respectively, in excess of the amount it paid in premiums in the State, exclusive of premiums for trials of speed, during its second year; and such association, upon its incorporation, shall file with the Auditor General a declaration of its intention to apply for said premium money for its third year. Such association must also file its report during its first two years, the same as any other association. This section shall not apply to a county agricultural association, heretofore incorporated, owning their own buildings and grounds, which shall hold annual exhibitions of the character designated in section three. Nor shall this section apply to a county agricultural association, heretofore or hereafter incorporated, which shall resume the holding of annual exhibitions of the character designated in section three of this act, which exhibitions have been for a period of not more than two years temporarily discontinued: Provided, however, That upon the termination of the existing state of war between the United States and any foreign country, any incorporated agricultural association otherwise entitled to receive the benefits of this act, shall not be disqualified from said benefits by reason of the discontinuance of said exhibitions for two or more consecutive years during the existing state of war between the United States and any foreign country, if said agricultural association has on or before December 15th of each year, commencing with one thousand nine hundred forty-three, filed with the Department of Agriculture of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania a sworn statement averring the discontinuance of such exhibitions to have been caused by war conditions.

Limitation of appropriations.

Reports.

Section 2. This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment.

Act effective immediately.

APPROVED—The 28th day of April, A. D. 1943.

AN ACT

To amend paragraph four of subsection (c) of section two hundred two and to further amend section six hundred twenty-nine of the act, approved the seventeenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred twenty-one (Pamphlet Laws, six hundred eighty-two), entitled "An act relating to insurance; amending, revising, and consolidating the law providing for the incorporation of insurance companies, and the regulation, supervision, and protection of home and foreign insurance companies, Lloyds associations, reciprocal and inter-insurance exchanges, and fire insurance rating bureaus, and the regulation and supervision of insurance carried by such companies, associations, and exchanges, including insurance carried by the State Workmen's Insurance Fund; providing penalties; and repealing existing laws," by extending the purposes for which certain companies may be incorporated, to include insuring medical, hospital, surgical and funeral expenses in connection with certain kinds of liability insurance, and insuring against loss or damage to property from certain causes for which the person insured is liable.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Paragraph 4 of subsection (c), section 202, act of May 17, 1921, P. L. 682, amended.

Section 1. Paragraph four of subsection (c) of section two hundred two of the act, approved the seventeenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred twenty-one (Pamphlet Laws, six hundred eighty-two), entitled "An act relating to insurance; amending, revising, and consolidating the law providing for the incorporation of insurance companies, and the regulation, supervision, and protection of home and foreign insurance companies, Lloyds associations, reciprocal and inter-insurance exchanges, and fire insurance rating bureaus, and the regulation and supervision of insurance carried by such companies, associations, and exchanges, including insurance carried by the State Workmen's Insurance Fund; providing penalties; and repealing existing laws," is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 202. Purposes for Which Companies May Be Incorporated.—

* * * * *

(c) Stock casualty insurance companies may be incorporated for any or all of the following purposes:

* * * * *

(4) To insure any one against loss or damage resulting from accident to, or injury, fatal or non-fatal, suffered by, an employe or other person, for which the person insured is liable; to insure against medical, hospital, surgical and funeral expenses incurred by or on behalf of persons accidentally injured, including the person insured, irrespective of the legal liability of the insured when such insurance is issued with and supplemental to such liability insurance; [or] to insure against loss or damage to property caused by horses, or by any vehicle drawn by animal power, for which loss or damage the person insured is liable; and to insure against loss or damage to property, for which loss or damage the person insured is liable, but not including any kind of property damage insurance specified in other paragraphs of this section.

Section 2. Section six hundred twenty-nine of said act, as amended by the act, approved the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine (Pamphlet Laws, six hundred seventy-eight), is hereby further amended by adding thereto a new subsection to read as follows:

Section 629. Limitations.—

* * * * *

(e) Nothing in subdivision (b) of this article shall apply to nor in any way affect any insurance of medical, hospital, surgical and funeral expenses issued with and supplemental to a liability insurance policy as mentioned in paragraph four of subsection (c) of section two hundred two of this act.

Section 3. This act shall become effective sixty (60) days after final enactment. Act effective June 28, 1943.

APPROVED—The 28th day of April, A. D. 1943.
