AN ACT

To amend section one of the act, approved the eleventh day of May, one thousand eight hundred ninety-three (Pamphlet Laws, forty-two), entitled "An act to authorize corporations organized for profit under the laws of Pennsylvania, to make allowances or pensions to employes for faithful and long continued service, who, in such service, have become old, infirm or disabled," authorizing certain corporations to make allowances or pensions to officers or employes.

Pennsylvania corporations organized for profit.

Section 1, act of May 11, 1893, P. L. 42, amended.

Corporations may grant pensions to officers and employes under certain circumstances.

Proviso.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. Section one of the act, approved the eleventh day of May, one thousand eight hundred ninety-three (Pamphlet Laws, forty-two), entitled "An act to authorize corporations organized for profit under the laws of Pennsylvania, to make allowances or pensions to employes for faithful and long continued service, who, in such service, have become old, infirm or disabled," is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c.,* That [from and after the passage of this act] corporations organized for profit under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and subject to the provisions of this act may, out of the earnings of said corporation, grant allowances or pensions to officers or employes for faithful and long continued service, who have, in such service, become old, infirm or disabled:

Provided, That the provisions of this act shall not apply to any director [or officer] of any such [company or] corporation who is not an officer or employe of said corporation.

APPROVED—The 6th day of May, A. D. 1943.
