

birds or animals released for such trials. Birds or animals so released may be killed during the above period, without regard to sex or numbers.

Before any game killed under the provisions of this section shall be consumed on the premises or removed therefrom, the official representative of the commission shall attach a tag to each bird or animal killed, such tags to be numbered consecutively and supplied by the commission at reasonable cost, and shall contain such information as the commission may require. Said tags shall remain attached to the individual birds or animals until prepared for consumption and shall not be used more than once.

It is unlawful for any person to hold, conduct, or to participate in a retriever trial before the permit required by this section has been secured; or for any person to possess or remove from the shooting grounds any birds or animals killed which have not been tagged as herein required; or for any person to sell or purchase, or attempt to sell or purchase, any birds or animals killed in conformity with the provisions of this section.

Participants in such a recognized retriever trial shall not be required to be possessed of either a hunter's license or a tag while participating in such trial.

Any person who shall violate any provisions of this section, shall, upon conviction, be sentenced to pay a fine of fifty dollars and costs of prosecution for each offense.

Section 2. The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment.

Act effective immediately.

Section 4, act of April 10, 1931,
P. L. 23, as added by act of June 1, 1943,
amended.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. Section 4 of the act, approved the tenth day of April, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws 23), entitled, as amended "An act providing for the acceptance by the Commonwealth of a gift of lands from the American Petroleum Institute, located on the left bank of Oil Creek, in Oil Creek Township or Cherry Tree Township, or both, Venango County, to establish and maintain a public museum and park, as the Drake Well Memorial, under the control and supervision of the Pennsylvania Historical Commission, in cooperation with the Department of Forests and Waters, and an advisory board to be appointed by the American Petroleum Institute; prescribing the powers and duties of the commission relative to said memorial; authorizing the employment of certain assistants and employes, and for the payment of their salaries; empowering the Department of Property and Supplies to acquire additional lands for such Memorial Park without cost to the Commonwealth; and making an appropriation," as added by the act, approved the first day of June, one thousand nine hundred forty-three (Pamphlet Laws 805), is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 4. The Pennsylvania Historical Commission is hereby authorized to cooperate with the Drake Well Memorial Advisory Board in carrying out the provisions of this act in order to make and preserve such memorial as a world center for research connected with the early history of the oil industry.

The said Drake Well Memorial Advisory Board shall consist of seven members, residents of Pennsylvania, to be appointed by the American Petroleum Institute, as soon as possible after the effective date of this act. The first four appointees shall serve for a term of four years and the other three appointees shall serve for a term of two years, and thereafter the term of all appointees shall be for a term of four years. Said board shall act in an advisory capacity to the commission and shall have power to make suggestions and recommendations to the commission for the improvement, care, maintenance, preservations and enlargement of the said memorial. Said board may accept gifts of money or securities for endowment purposes and for the purposes of maintenance, improvement and enlargement of the Drake Well Memorial Park.
