

Construction of section.

Conveyances authorized.

Certain prior conveyances validated.

This section shall be construed as authorizing a conveyance of an interest in real property (1) by either husband or wife without the joinder of his or her spouse to husband and wife as tenants by the entirety, [and] (2) by husband and wife as tenants by the entirety to either husband or wife alone, and (3) by either tenant by the entirety alone to the other without the other joining in the deed. All such conveyances and all conveyances authorized by this amendment made and executed after the passage of the act, approved the third day of June, one thousand nine hundred eleven (Pamphlet Laws 631), are hereby ratified and confirmed and declared valid.

APPROVED—The 17th day of August, A. D. 1951.

JOHN S. FINE

No. 304

AN ACT

Authorizing cities, boroughs, towns and townships to accumulate over a period of more than one year monies required to match State grants; and further regulating the budget, taxation and appropriation powers of such political subdivisions therefor.

Municipal corporations.

Cities, boroughs, towns and townships authorized to accumulate over a period of more than one year monies required to match State grants.

Municipalities authorized to levy tax to meet expense so budgeted.

Transfer of sum so budgeted to another fund or use thereof for other purposes prohibited.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. Whenever any law provides for the grant, subsidy, allocation or apportionment of State monies to a city, borough, town or township, the payment of which is conditioned on the matching thereof at any time within a period of more than one year by monies of such political subdivision, the political subdivision may accumulate the necessary monies during any such prescribed period. For such purpose, a city, borough, town or township may annually budget part of the necessary total sum as a current expenditure, may levy taxes to meet, inter alia, an expense so budgeted, and may appropriate such sum for accumulation from year to year within the prescribed period. No sum so budgeted or appropriated by a city, borough, town or township shall be transferred to any other fund, or used by the political subdivision for any other purpose.

APPROVED—The 17th day of August, A. D. 1951.

JOHN S. FINE