

health, or the rules and regulations of the Department of Health; or who shall interfere with a health officer or any other duly qualified agent of the Department of Health or of any local board or department of health in the discharge of his official duties in the placarding, quarantining, disinfecting, or releasing from quarantine of any premises or in the investigation of any alleged case of quarantinable disease,—shall for every such offense, upon conviction thereof in a summary proceeding before any magistrate or justice of the peace of the county wherein said offense was committed, be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than one hundred ($100) dollars, to be paid to the use of the said county, and costs of prosecution, or to be imprisoned in the county jail for a period of not less than ten or more than thirty days, or both, at the discretion of the court.

Penalty for interfering with health officers.

Any physician, undertaker, teacher of a public school, principal of a school, superintendent of a Sunday school, sexton, janitor, parent or guardian, or any other person or persons who shall fail, neglect, or refuse to comply with, or who shall violate, any of the provisions of this act or any regulation of the Department of Health or the local health authorities, shall for every such offense, upon conviction thereof in a summary proceeding before any magistrate or justice of the peace of the county wherein said offense was committed, be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than one hundred ($100) dollars, to be paid to the use of said county, and costs of prosecution, or to be imprisoned in the county jail for a period of not less than ten or more than thirty days, or both, at the discretion of the court.

Penalty for violation of act or regulations.

Section 5. The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment.

Act effective immediately.

APPROVED—The 26th day of September, A. D. 1951.

JOHN S. FINE

No. 372

AN ACT

To authorize the revival of judgments entered in favor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania by filing a suggestion of nonpayment.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Judgments.

Section 1. Whenever a claim of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania has been reduced to judgment and the claim has not been paid, then, in any such case, a suggestion of nonpayment may be filed in the county where the judgment was originally entered, with the prothonotary of said county, at any time within five years of the date of entry of the original judgment. After notice to all proper parties, by registered mail to their last known address or advertisement inserted in a newspaper in the county where the property is located, and no objection being filed within fifteen days after such service thereof, when indexed upon the judgment index the suggestion of nonpayment filed, as herein provided, shall revive the original judgment for a period of five years from the date of filing such suggestion of nonpayment, with the same force and effect as though a writ of scire facias had been issued, served on all proper parties, including real owners or terre-tenants, and duly prosecuted to judgment; and any judgment so revived shall remain a valid lien upon any real estate upon which it was a lien at the time the suggestion of nonpayment was filed and indexed upon the judgment index for a further period of five years, and may again be revived in like manner.

Revival of judgments entered in favor of Commonwealth by filing a suggestion of nonpayment authorized in certain cases.

Judgment so revived to remain a valid lien for further period of 5 years.

Act effective immediately.

Section 2. This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment.

APPROVED—The 26th day of September, A. D. 1951.

JOHN S. FINE

No. 373

AN ACT

To further amend section 1 of the act, approved the eleventh day of July, one thousand nine hundred twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws 1032), entitled "An act providing for the abatement of nuisances caused by the improper grading or defective paving or encroaching fences in alleys, in cities of the first class; for the establishment of lines and grades for, and the grading, paving, or repaving of, said alleys, and the grading of private alleys hereafter laid out; and for apportioning the cost, and for the filing of liens therefor," by giving property owners a longer period of time in which to abate nuisances.

Cities of first class.

Section 1, act of July 11, 1923, P. L. 1032, as last amended by act of May 17, 1939, P. L. 151, further amended.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. Section 1 of the act, approved the eleventh day of July, one thousand nine hundred twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws 1032), entitled "An act providing for the abatement of nuisances caused by the improper grading or defective paving or encroaching fences in alleys, in cities of the first class; for the establishment of lines and grades for, and the grading, paving, or repaving of, said alleys, and the grading of private alleys hereafter laid out; and for the apportioning the cost, and for the filing of liens therefor," as last amended by the act, approved the seventeenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine (Pamphlet Laws 151), is hereby further amended to read as follows: