"The First Class Township Code."

Section 1001, act of June 24, 1931, P. L. 1206, as reenacted and amended by act of May 27, 1949, P. L. 1955, further amended.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. Section 1001 of the act, approved the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws 1206), entitled "An act concerning townships of the first class; amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating thereto," as reenacted and amended by the act, approved the twenty-seventh day of May, one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (Pamphlet Laws 1955), is hereby further amended to read as follows:

Section 1001. Meetings; General Duties; Compensation.—The auditors of townships shall meet annually, on the day following the day which is fixed by this act for the organization of the township commissioners, and shall audit, settle, and adjust the accounts of the township commissioners, township treasurer, tax collector, secretary, and other officers and persons receiving and disbursing or authorizing the disbursement of the moneys of the township during the preceding fiscal year. The auditors shall make an audit of the dockets, transcripts, and other official records of the offices of the justice of the peace of the township to determine the amounts of fines and costs paid or due to the township. All justices of the peace shall open and make available to the auditors their dockets, transcripts, records, and all other official books or papers for the purpose of the audit: Provided, That in any case where a justice of the peace charges a fine contrary to ordinances, or to any act which makes such fine payable to the township, the said auditors have the power to surcharge such justices of the peace in any amount or amounts undercharged as set forth in said ordinances or act. Two auditors shall constitute a quorum. Each auditor shall receive [six dollars ($6)] ten dollars ($10) per diem for each day necessarily employed in the duties of his office, to be paid out of funds of the township. A day shall consist of not less than five hours in the aggregate. In completing their audit, the auditors shall not be employed more than the following number of days: In townships having a population of less than three thousand, twenty days; in townships *having a population of three thousand and more but less than ten thousand, thirty days; and in townships having a population of ten thousand and more, forty days.

APPROVED—The 29th day of September, A. D. 1951.
