

Exemption from taxation.

States. All notes issued under the provisions of this act shall be exempt from taxation for State and local purposes.

Disposition of proceeds from negotiation of such loans.

Section 3. The proceeds derived from the negotiation of loans under the provisions of this act shall be paid into the General Fund of the State Treasury, and shall be used for the payment of appropriations made from such fund to defray the current and other expenses of the State government for the current fiscal biennium.

Security for loans.

Section 4. Any loans negotiated under the provisions of this act shall be secured by the current revenues levied and assessed for revenue purposes of every kind or character accruing to the General Fund of the State Treasury during the current fiscal biennium and shall be paid out of such revenues, and so much of such revenues as shall be necessary for the payment of the principal and interest of such loans are hereby specifically appropriated. The Department of Revenue shall allocate such revenues to said payments.

Constitutionality and severability.

Section 5. The provisions of this act are severable and if any of its provisions are held unconstitutional, the decision so holding shall not be construed to impair any other provision of this act. It is hereby declared that the legislative intent would have been to adopt this act had such unconstitutional provision not been included herein.

Act effective immediately.

Section 6. This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment.

AN ACT

To further amend the act, approved the nineteenth day of March, one thousand nine hundred nine (Pamphlet Laws 46), entitled "An act to regulate the practice of osteopathy in the State of Pennsylvania; to provide for the establishment of a State Board of Osteopathic Examiners; to define the powers and duties of said Board of Osteopathic Examiners; to provide for the examining and licensing of osteopaths in this State; and to provide penalties for the violation of this act," by providing for the licensing, without examination, of persons licensed by the provinces of the Dominion of Canada, in certain cases.

Osteopathy.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 7, act of March 19, 1909, P. L. 46, amended.

Section 1. Section 7 of the act, approved the nineteenth day of March, one thousand nine hundred nine (Pamphlet Laws 46), entitled "An act to regulate the practice of osteopathy in the State of Pennsylvania; to provide for the establishment of a State Board of Osteopathic Examiners; to define the powers and duties of said Board of Osteopathic Examiners; to provide for the examining and licensing of osteopaths in this State; and to provide penalties for the violation of this act," is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 7. [Any person who is engaged in the practice of osteopathy in this State at the time of the approval of this act may deliver to the Secretary of the Board of Osteopathic Examiners, within ninety days after the approval of this act, a written application for license to practice osteopathy, together with satisfactory proof that the applicant is not less than twenty-one years of age, is of good moral character, and has obtained a diploma from some legally incorporated, reputable osteopathic college, requiring a course of study of at least four terms of five months each for graduation; and upon the payment by the applicant of a fee of ten dollars, the Secretary of the said Board of Osteopathic Examiners shall issue to such applicant a license to practice osteopathy in this State, which license shall be subscribed by every member of the Board of Osteopathic Examiners, and shall have a like effect, for all purposes, as a license issued after examination by the Board of Examiners, as hereinafter provided.]

Every license to practice osteopathy, issued under the provisions of this act, shall be signed by each member of the Board of Examiners; and shall have affixed to it, by the person authorized to affix the same, the seal of the State Board of Osteopathic Examiners. Before said license shall be issued, it shall be recorded in a book to be kept by the Secretary of the Board of Examiners; and the number of the books, and the page therein containing such recorded copy, shall be noted upon the face of said license. Said records shall, under proper restrictions for their safe-keeping, be open to public inspection: Provided further, That anyone who has been in continuous practice of osteopathy for ten years in some other State or province of the Dominion of Canada, and who graduated from a legally incorporated and reputable college of osteopathy, as provided for in this act, may be granted a license, without further examination, after complying with all the other conditions provided for in the licensing of osteopaths in practice in this State at the time of the approval of this act.

Issuance of license to practice osteopathy.

Proviso: Licensure of licensees of other States and Canadian licensees without examination.

Section 2. Section 10 of said act, as last amended by the act, approved the fifth day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (Pamphlet Laws 1649), is hereby further amended to read as follows:
