AN ACT

To further amend the act, approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws 1278), entitled "An act relating to counties of the second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes; and revising, amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto," by providing for disability leave with salary, and hospital and medical expenses, for certain employes of jails and workhouses in counties of the second class temporarily incapacitated in the performance of duties.

"The General
County Law."

Subdivision (o)
of article III,
act of May 2,
1929, P. L.
1278, as last
amended by act
of July 5, 1947,
P. L. 1308,
further amended
by adding, after
section 306, a
new section 307.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. Subsection (o) of Article III of the act, approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws 1278), entitled "An act relating to counties of the second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes; and revising, amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto," as last amended by the act, approved the fifth day of July, one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (Pamphlet Laws 1308), is hereby further amended by adding, after section 306, a new section to read as follows:

Section 307. Employes of Jails and Workhouses in Counties of the Second Class.—Guards, matrons, nurses, or any employe who comes in contact with inmates of jails and workhouses in counties of the second class, who may be incapacitated as a result of violence on them by an inmate through the performance of their duties, shall be paid by the county by which they are employed their full rate of salary, as fixed by the salary board of such county, until the disability arising therefrom has ceased; but the period for such salary payments by the county shall not exceed the period during which such employe is entitled to compensation for the injury received under the provisions of the Workmen's Compensation Act. All medical and hospital bills incurred in connection with any such injuries shall be paid by such county. All benefits under the Workmen's Compensation Law which shall be received or collected by any such employe during the period he has received salary for temporary disability shall be paid over to the county and into the treasury thereof. If any such payment or payments shall not be so made by such employe, the amount so directed to be paid the county shall be deducted from any salary which shall then or thereafter become due and owing to such employe.
