disbursement or other disposition of funds and securities belonging to or in the possession of the Commonwealth, and the settlement of claims against the Commonwealth, the resettlement of accounts and appeals to the courts, refunds of moneys erroneously paid to the Commonwealth, auditing the accounts of the Commonwealth and all agencies thereof, of all public officers collecting moneys payable to the Commonwealth, or any agency thereof, and all receipts of appropriations from the Commonwealth and imposing penalties; affecting every department, board, commission, and officer of the State government, every political subdivision of the State, and certain officers of such subdivisions, every person, association, and corporation required to pay, assess, or collect taxes, or to make returns or reports under the laws imposing taxes for State purposes, or to pay license fees or other moneys to the Commonwealth, or any agency thereof, every State depository and every debtor or creditor of the Commonwealth," as last amended in part by the act, approved the twenty-eighth day of June, one thousand nine hundred fifty-one (Pamphlet Laws 593), is hereby further amended to read as follows:

Section 1501. Requisitions.—No money shall be paid out of any fund in the State Treasury, except (1) the State Workmen's Insurance Fund, and except (2) the Surplus Commodities Stamp Fund, [and (3) the Historical Preservation Fund] until a requisition therefor shall have been presented to or prepared by the Auditor General.

For *money appropriated to the Governor or to the Executive Board, the Governor shall prepare requisitions and present them to the Department of the Auditor General.

For money appropriated to the Lieutenant Governor he shall prepare requisitions and present them to the Department of the Auditor General.

For money appropriated to administrative departments, or to independent administrative boards or commissions, the respective departments, boards, or commissions, shall prepare their requisitions, with the written approval of their respective comptrollers noted thereon, and present them to the Department of the Auditor General.

For money appropriated to departmental administrative boards or commissions, or advisory boards or commissions, such boards or commissions shall prepare requisitions, and forward them to the departments with which they are respectively connected. Such departments, if they approve the requisitions, shall so signify in writing, and shall transmit them to the Department
