

No. 105

AN ACT

Requiring aldermen, justices of the peace and burgesses to issue receipts for moneys paid to them, and providing for form of receipts, and penalties for violations.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Requirement to issue itemized receipt upon request.

Section 1. All aldermen, justices of the peace and burgesses shall, upon request, issue an itemized receipt to the plaintiff, prosecutor or defendant for any moneys paid to them in any case pending before them.

Required contents of receipt.

Section 2. The receipt shall be in such form as clearly to indicate the date, the name of the payer, the amount paid, and the purpose for which moneys were paid, and shall be signed by the alderman, justice of the peace or burgess issuing the same.

Penalty.

Section 3. Any alderman, justice of the peace or burgess failing to comply with the provisions of this act is guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars ($100), or undergo imprisonment not exceeding thirty (30) days, or both.

APPROVED—The 27th day of July, A. D. 1955.

No. 106

AN ACT

Amending the act of May two, one thousand nine hundred twenty-five (Pamphlet Laws 448), entitled "An act relating to fish; and amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating to fish in the inland waters and the boundary lakes and boundary rivers of the Commonwealth," further regulating the fees charged to non-residents and alien non-residents.

The Fish Law of one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five.

Subsection A, section 221, act of May 2, 1925, P. L. 448, amended May 16, 1951, P. L. 312, further amended.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. Subsection A and subsection B of section two hundred twenty-one, act of May two, one thousand nine hundred twenty-five (Pamphlet Laws 448), known as "The Fish Law of one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five," respectively amended May sixteen, one thousand nine hundred fifty-one (Pamphlet Laws 312), and June twenty-five, one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (Pamphlet Laws 914), are amended to read:

Section 221. Non-resident and Alien Non-resident Fishing License Fees; Tourist Fishing License Fees for

Non-residents and Alien Non-residents.—A. For the purposes of this article, every person, twelve years of age and upward, upon application to any issuing agent within the Commonwealth or to the Department of Revenue and the presentation of proof that he is a Canadian subject or citizen or a non-resident of this Commonwealth but a citizen of the United States, and, in the case of naturalized foreign-born non-residents, the production of such applicants' naturalization papers, shall, upon the payment to the issuing agent or the Department of Revenue of the same amount as is charged and received from non-residents by the State of which the applicant is a resident or the country of which the applicant is a subject or citizen for a similar license, plus the amount charged and received for a trout stamp or permit in cases where they are required, (not, however, less in any case than two dollars and fifty cents ($2.50)) and, in the event that the license is issued by an issuing agent, the payment of ten cents (10c) for the use of the issuing agent, be entitled to the license herein referred to as a "non-resident fishing license."

B. For the purposes of this article, every person, twelve years of age and upward, upon application to any issuing agent within the Commonwealth or to the Department of Revenue and the presentation of proof that he is a non-resident of the Commonwealth but a citizen of the United States, and, in the case of naturalized foreign-born non-residents, the production of such applicants' naturalization papers, shall, upon the payment to the issuing agent or the Department of Revenue of a license fee of [two dollars ($2.00)] two dollars and fifty cents ($2.50) for the use of the Commonwealth, and, in the event that the license is issued by an issuing agent, a fee of ten cents (10c) for the use of the issuing agent, be entitled to the license herein referred to as a "tourist fishing license" which shall be valid for a period of five (5) consecutive days.

In case the license certificate is lost or destroyed, a duplicate can be secured from the Department of Revenue by making affidavit to that effect. In case the button is lost or destroyed, the licensee can make a duplicate, and in case both the license certificate and the button are lost or destroyed, a new license and button may be secured from the Department of Revenue upon making affidavit to that effect and the payment of a fee of fifty cents (50c).
