

No. 173

AN ACT

Amending the act of March ten, one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (Pamphlet Laws 30), entitled "An act relating to the public school system, including certain provisions applicable as well to private and parochial schools; amending, revising, consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto," removing the requirement that auctions be conducted by licensed auctioneers.

"Public School Code of 1949."

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Clause (1), section 707, act of March 10, 1949, P. L. 30, amended.

Section 1. Clause (1) of section seven hundred seven, act of March ten, one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (Pamphlet Laws 30), known as the "Public School Code of 1949," is amended to read:

Section 707. Sale of Unused and Unnecessary Lands and Buildings.—The board of school directors of any district is hereby vested with the necessary power and authority to sell unused and unnecessary lands and buildings, by any of the following methods and subject to the following provisions:

(1) By public auction [conducted by a licensed auctioneer], either on the premises to be sold or at places selected by the school board, after due notice by publication in one or more newspapers of general circulation published within the county or the school district and in the legal newspaper in said county, if any, once a week for three successive weeks before the date fixed for said sales, and by hand bills, one or more of which must be posted on the property proposed to be sold, and at least five of which must be posted at conspicuous places within the vicinity of said real *estate. Terms and conditions of sale shall be fixed by the board in the motion or resolution authorizing the sale.

APPROVED—The 27th day of September, A. D. 1955.

GEORGE M. LEADER
