

No. 463

AN ACT

Amending the act of July one, one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (Pamphlet Laws 2461), entitled "An act providing for the qualifications, examination, appointment, term of office, and removal of Anthracite Mine Inspectors; conferring powers and imposing duties in connection therewith upon the Governor, the Anthracite Mine Inspectors' Examining Board, the Department of Mines, and the courts; and imposing penalties," making certain mine inspectors eligible for reappointment without examination.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 6, act of July 1, 1937,
P. L. 2461,
amended.

Section 1. Section six, act of July one, one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (Pamphlet Laws 2461), entitled "An act providing for the qualifications, examination, appointment, term of office, and removal of Anthracite Mine Inspectors; conferring powers and imposing duties in connection therewith upon the Governor, the Anthracite Mine Inspectors' Examining Board, the Department of Mines, and the courts; and imposing penalties," is amended to read:

Present and former anthracite mine inspectors.

Section 6. The anthracite mine inspectors holding office on the date this act becomes effective shall continue to serve until the expiration of their respective terms, and such persons shall thereafter be eligible for reappointment as anthracite mine inspectors without examination, provided they have served as anthracite mine inspectors for a period of four (4) years or longer. Any person who has served as an anthracite mine inspector for four (4) or more years shall be eligible for reappointment as mine inspector even if beyond fifty-five (55) years of age without further examination. Such reappointment shall not be governed by the provisions of section seven of this act.

APPROVED—The 4th day of April, A. D. 1956.
