No. 642

AN ACT

Amending the act of May twenty-two, one thousand nine hundred thirty-three (Pamphlet Laws 853), entitled "An act relating to taxation; designating the subjects, property and persons subject to and exempt from taxation for all local purposes; providing for and regulating the assessment and valuation of persons, property and subjects of taxation for county purposes, and for the use of those municipal and quasi-municipal corporations which levy their taxes on county assessments and valuations; amending, revising and consolidating the law relating thereto; and repealing existing laws," clarifying the exclusion of cities, boroughs, townships, school districts and poor districts, in counties of the second class, from provision excluding certain items in valuing real estate.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

The General County Assessment Law.

Section 201, act of May 22, 1933, P. L. 853, amended July 28, 1953, P. L. 701, and July 29, 1953, P. L. 984, further amended

Section 1. Section 201, act of May twenty-two, one thousand nine hundred thirty-three (Pamphlet Laws 853), known as "The General County Assessment Law," amended July twenty-eight, one thousand nine hundred fifty-three (Pamphlet Laws 701), and July twenty-nine, one thousand nine hundred fifty-three (Pamphlet Laws 984), is amended to read:

Section 201. Subjects of Taxation Enumerated.—The following subjects and property shall, as hereinafter provided, be valued and assessed, and subject to taxation for all county, city, borough, town, township, school and poor purposes at the annual rate:

(a) All real estate, to wit: Houses, house trailers permanently attached to land, lands, lots of ground and ground rents, trailer parks and parking lots, mills and manufactories of all kinds, furnaces, forges, bloomeries, distilleries, sugar houses, malt houses, breweries, tan yards, fisheries, and ferries, wharves, and all other real estate not exempt by law from taxation.
