

AN ACT

Amending the act of April 15, 1834 (P. L. 537), entitled "An act relating to counties and townships and county and township officers," removing a minimum fee for fish, hunters and dog licenses.

County treasurers.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 42, act of April 15, 1834, P. L. 537, amended April 27, 1927, P. L. 473, further amended.

Section 1. Section 42, act of April 15, 1834 (P. L. 537), entitled "An act relating to counties and townships and county and township officers," amended April 27, 1927 (P. L. 473), is amended to read:

County treasurers to be agents of the Commonwealth for collection of money.

Section 42. County treasurers of the several counties shall be the agents of the Commonwealth for the collecting and transmitting of money for the Commonwealth. Each county treasurer shall be entitled to deduct from the gross amount of moneys received by him for the use of the Commonwealth, on each separate account, he is required to keep and settle a commission in the following proportions, viz: where the whole sum accounted for and paid into the State Treasury, or otherwise, for the use of the Commonwealth, as directed by law, arising from either of the accounts specified in this act, does not exceed one thousand dollars, at the rate of five per cent; when it exceeds that sum and does not exceed two thousand dollars, one per cent for such excess over one thousand dollars; and on all beyond the sum of two thousand dollars, one-half of one per cent, except fees paid for fish, hunters, and dog licenses, which shall be the same as [now] prescribed by law, [namely, ten cents for each license]: Provided, That no commission shall be allowed to any county treasurer, unless the amount due to the Commonwealth and received by him, be paid over within the times hereinbefore specified, and unless his accounts shall be transmitted and settled on or before the second Tuesday of December, in each and every year. Out of the commission deducted under the provisions of this section and the fees for issuing fish, hunters, and dog licenses, each county treasurer shall be entitled to retain for his own use, as compensation for the collection and transmission of money under this act and any other acts of Assembly constituting county treasurers the agents of the Commonwealth for the collection and transmission of money, a sum equal to twenty per centum of the amount of his salary for acting as county treasurer as may now or hereafter be fixed and determined by law, and in addition thereto he shall be entitled to retain the amount of the premium or premiums on any bond or bonds which he is required to file in connection with the collection and transmission of money
