AN ACT

Amending the act of July 28, 1953 (P. L. 723), entitled "An act relating to counties of the second class; amending, *revising, consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto," authorizing the board of county commissioners to formulate and adopt certain ordinances, resolutions, rules and regulations in order to preserve county property and to promote and preserve the public health, safety and welfare and fixing penalties.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Second Class County Code.

Section 1. Section 508, act of July 28, 1953 (P. L. 723), known as the "Second Class County Code," is amended to read:

Section 508, act of July 28, 1953, P. L. 723, amended.

Section 508. Ordinances and Resolutions.—(a) The board of commissioners may adopt resolutions and ordinances prescribing the manner in which powers of the county shall be carried out and generally regulating the affairs of the county.

(b) The board of county commissioners may formulate and adopt ordinances, resolutions, rules and regulations, pertaining to the use of any property owned or used by the county and the conduct of persons in, on or about such county property, in order to preserve such property and to promote and preserve the public health, safety and welfare. The rules and regulations shall be published, promulgated and become effective in the same manner as other resolutions and ordinances of the county.

[(b)] (c) All such ordinances, resolutions, rules and regulations unless otherwise provided by law, shall be published at least once in one newspaper of general cir-ulation in the county. Such ordinances, resolutions, rules and regulations shall not become effective until ten days after the publication aforesaid. In [any case in which maps, plans or drawings of any kind are adopted as part of an ordinance, the commissioners may, instead of publishing the same as part *of the ordinance, refer, in publishing the ordinance, to the place where] lieu of publishing the ordinances, resolutions, rules or regulations in their entirety, the county commissioners may publish the title or a summary thereof and the place where such ordinances,  resolutions, rules or regulations, together with such maps, plans or drawings which may be part thereof, are on file and may be examined.

[(c)] (d) Any person violating any of the ordinances, resolutions, rules and regulations, formulated and adopted by the board of county commissioners pursuant to this section, shall, upon conviction thereof at a summary proceeding, be sentenced to pay such fine as may be prescribed in such ordinances, resolutions, rules and regulations by the county commissioners but not in excess of one hundred dollars ($100), to be paid to the use of the county, with costs of prosecution, or to be imprisoned in the county jail for not more than thirty (30) days, or both.

The board of county commissioners may also prescribe fines and penalties, not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500), for the violation of county ordinances, which fines and penalties may be collected by suit brought in the name of the county in like manner as debts of like amount may be sued for.

Act effective immediately.

Section 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

APPROVED—The 10th day of July, A. D. 1957.
