No. 25

AN ACT

Amending the act of March 10, 1949 (P. L. 30), entitled "An act relating to the public school system, including certain provisions applicable as well to private and parochial schools; amending, revising, consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto," authorizing children fifteen and sixteen years of age or older to attend certain trade or business schools.

Public School Code of 1949.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1327, act of March 10, 1949, P. L. 30, amended September 28, 1951, P. L. 1551, further amended.

Section 1. Section 1327, act of March 10, 1949 (P. L. 30), known as the "Public School Code of 1949," amended September 28, 1951 (P. L. 1551), is amended to read:

Section 1327. Compulsory School Attendance.—Every child of compulsory school age having a legal residence in this Commonwealth, as provided in this article, and every migratory child of compulsory school age, is required to attend a day school in which the subjects and activities prescribed by the State Council of Education are taught in the English language. In lieu of such school attendance, any child fifteen years of age with the approval of the chief public school administrator of the administrative unit where the child resides, if such is employed, otherwise the county superintendent of schools and the approval of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, and any child sixteen years of age with the approval of the chief public school administrator of the administrative unit where the child resides, if such is employed, otherwise the county superintendent of schools, may enroll as a day student in a private trade school or in a private business school licensed by the Department of Public Instruction, or in a trade or business school, or department operated by a local school district or districts or by the county board of school directors. Such modified program offered in a public school must meet the standards prescribed by the State Council of Education or the State Board of Vocational Education. Every parent, guardian, or other person having control or charge of any child or children of compulsory school age is required to send such child or children to a day school in which the subjects and activities prescribed by the State Council of Education are taught in the English language. Such parent, guardian, or other person having control or charge of any child or children, fifteen or sixteen years of age, in accordance with the provisions of this act, may send such child or children to a private trade school or private business school licensed by the State Department of Public Instruction, or to a trade or business school, or department operated by a local school district or districts or by the county board of school directors. Such modified program offered in a public school must meet the standards prescribed by the State Council of Education or the State Board of Vocational Education. Such child or children shall attend such school continuously through the entire term, during which the public schools in their respective districts shall be in session, or in cases of migratory children during the time the schools are in session in the districts in which such children are temporarily domiciled. The financial responsibility for the education of such migratory children shall remain with the school district in which such migratory children are temporarily domiciled. The certificate of any principal or teacher of a private school, or of any institution for the education of children, in which the subjects and activities prescribed by the State Council of Education are taught in the English language, setting forth that the work of said school is in compliance with the provisions of this act, shall be sufficient and satisfactory evidence thereof. Regular daily instruction in the English language, for the time herein required, by a properly qualified private tutor, shall be considered as complying with the provisions of this section, if such instruction is satisfactory to the proper county or district superintendent of schools.

APPROVED—The 22d day of April, A. D. 1959.
