AN ACT

Amending the act of April 27, 1927 (P. L. 465), entitled, as amended, "An act to provide for the safety of persons employed, housed, or assembled in certain buildings and structures not in cities of the first class, second class, and second class A, by requiring certain construction and ways of egress, equipment, and maintenance; providing for the licensing of projectionists, except in cities of the first class and second class; requiring the submission of plans for examination and approval; providing for the promulgation of rules and regulations for the enforcement of this act; providing for the enforcement of this act by the Department of Labor and Industry and, in certain cases, by the chiefs of fire departments in cities of the third class; providing penalties for violations of the provisions of this act; and repealing certain acts," providing exemptions from certain provisions of the act.

Safety in buildings.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 7, act of April 27, 1927, P. L. 465, amended May 22, 1953, P. L. 196, further amended.

Section 1. Section 7, act of April 27, 1927 (P. L. 465), entitled, as amended, "An act to provide for the safety of persons employed, housed, or assembled in certain buildings and structures not in cities of the first class, second class, and second class A, by requiring certain construction and ways of egress, equipment, and maintenance; providing for the licensing of projectionists, except in cities of the first class and second class; requiring the submission of plans for examination and approval; providing for the promulgation of rules and regulations for the enforcement of this act; providing for the enforcement of this act by the Department of Labor and Industry and, in certain cases, by the chiefs of fire departments in cities of the third class; providing penalties for violations of the provisions of this act; and repealing certain acts," amended May 22, 1953 (P. L. 196), is amended to read:

Section 7. Licensing of Projectionists Except in Cities of the First Class and Second Class.—[No] Except as otherwise provided herein, no person shall be permitted to project any motion picture, either theatrical or nontheatrical, until he has obtained a license from the Department of Labor and Industry, after passing an examination prescribed by the said department, for which fees shall be charged as hereinafter provided; and no person shall be permitted in any projection room during any performance, except licensed projectionists, apprentice projectionists, the manager or owner of the theater, or authorized officials of the Department of Labor and Industry. Any license may be suspended or revoked for due cause, but no license shall be revoked until the projectionist or apprentice projectionist has been granted a hearing before the Secretary of Labor and Industry. The amendment providing for the licensing of projectionists in cities of the second class A to become effective as of the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred fifty-two.

Every application for examination as a projectionist shall be accompanied by a fee of three dollars ($3.00). If the applicant is successful, a certificate of competency and a license shall be issued upon payment of an additional fee of seven dollars fifty cents ($7.50) for projectionists of theatrical or commercial motion pictures, or a fee of three dollars ($3.00) for projectionists of non-theatrical motion pictures. There shall be no examination fee required from apprentice projectionists, but there shall be a license fee of four dollars fifty cents ($4.50) required, the same to accompany application from the apprentice projectionist. For the annual renewal of license for a theatrical or commercial projectionist, there shall be a fee of seven dollars fifty cents ($7.50) charged, the same to accompany the application for renewal of license, and for non-theatrical projectionists the renewal fee shall be three dollars ($3.00). The renewal fee for apprentice license shall be two dollars ($2.00). All fees shall be paid to the Department of Labor and Industry and by the said department paid to the State Treasurer, through the Department of Revenue, for the use of the Commonwealth: Provided, however, That no registration, examination, license or fee shall be required for any one to operate approved sixteen millimeter or smaller projectors, using cellulose acetate film or similar nonflammable film, with or without sound equipment, not being exhibited in theaters or public places of entertainment regularly used as such at which admission fees are charged.

Section 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

Effective immediately.

APPROVED—The 22d day of April, A. D. 1959.
