

No. 214

AN ACT

Requiring State licensing boards and agencies to give credit for training received in the armed services of the United States toward requirements for internship, clerkship, apprenticeship and other job training as a prerequisite to issuing a license.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. Any person who is now required by law to serve an apprenticeship, internship, clerkship or other job training as a prerequisite for licensure before any State board or agency, shall receive credit for any period of such qualifying training in the armed services of the United States toward such requirement of training upon furnishing such official documents or other proof, as may be required by the board or agency, that he did engage in such qualifying training while in the armed services of the United States as such requirement is interpreted by the responsible board or agency.

Section 2. The credit for training under section 1 of this act shall not be accepted by a board or agency, unless it meets the minimum requirements for such training as is now provided by law or any rules or regulation promulgated thereunder.

APPROVED—The 11th day of August, A. D. 1959.
