AN ACT

Amending the act of May 4, 1927 (P. L. 519), entitled "An act concerning boroughs; and revising, amending and consolidating the law relating to boroughs," further regulating the election of councilmen.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

The Borough Code.

Section 1. Section 810, act of May 4, 1927 (P. L. 519), known as "The Borough Code," reenacted and amended July 10, 1947 (P. L. 1621), is amended to read:

Section 810, act of May 4, 1927, P. L. 519, reenacted and amended July 10, 1947, P. L. 1621, further amended.

Section 810. Election of Councilmen.—At the municipal election to be held in the year one thousand nine hundred and forty-seven, there shall be elected in each borough a sufficient number of councilmen to equal one-half of the entire number of which such council is legally composed, to serve for a term of four years from the first Monday of January next succeeding, and, where such entire number is seven, nine, or eleven, then sufficient to constitute three, four, or five, as the case may be; the aforesaid councilmen, to be elected in the year one thousand nine hundred and forty-seven, being successors to those elected in the year one thousand nine hundred and forty-three, whose terms, as heretofore provided by law, expire on the first Monday of January, one thousand nine hundred and forty-eight. All councilmen whose terms expire on the first Monday of January, one thousand nine hundred and fifty, shall continue to hold their office until the first Monday of January, one thousand nine hundred and fifty, as now provided, and their successors shall be elected at the municipal election in the year one thousand nine hundred and forty-nine, to serve for a term of four years, from the first Monday of January next succeeding. If for any reason councilmen are not elected as hereinbefore provided, councilmen whose terms end on the same date shall cast lots to determine who shall serve for a two year term and who shall serve for a four year term. The councilmen to whom the lot shall fall shall be declared to serve a four year term. The secretary of the borough shall certify the results to the appropriate county board of elections. Biennially thereafter, at the municipal election, a sufficient number of councilmen shall be elected, for a term of four years from the first Monday of January next succeeding, to fill the places of those whose terms, under the provisions of this act, shall expire on the first Monday of January next following such election.
