AN ACT

Authorizing the marking of highways and intersections in the State highway system and conferring powers on the Department of Highways.

Highway markings.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Department of Highways empowered to apply and maintain luminous stripe on State highways.

Section 1. The Department of Highways may apply, and thereafter maintain and repaint, along the edges of all three and four lane State highways without curbs, and on the curbs at all intersections on highways in the State highway system, a luminous stripe which shall have sufficient reflection and brilliance so as to effectively warn vehicular traffic from crossing the edge of the highway or intersection and entering on the shoulder or berm.

Act effective immediately.

Section 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

APPROVED—The 8th day of December, A. D. 1959.

AN ACT

Amending the act of June 24, 1939 (P. L. 872), entitled "An act to consolidate, amend and revise the penal laws of the Commonwealth," prescribing penalties for using obscene or offensive language over telephones or repeatedly by telephone annoying, molesting or harassing another.

The Penal Code.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Act of June 24, 1939, P. L. 872, amended by adding a new section 414.1.

Section 1. The act of June 24, 1939 (P. L. 872), known as "The Penal Code," is amended by adding, after section 414, a new section to read:

Section 414.1. Malicious Use of Telephones.—Whoever telephones another person and addresses to or about such other person any lewd, lascivious or indecent words or language, or whoever anonymously telephones another person repeatedly for the purpose of annoying, molesting or harassing such other person or his or her family, shall be deemed guilty of the misdemeanor of being a disorderly person, and, upon conviction, shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500), to which may be added imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months: Provided, That any offense committed by the use of a telephone, as herein set out, may be deemed to have been committed at either the place at which the telephone call or calls were made or at the place where the telephone call or calls were received.

APPROVED—The 8th day of December, A. D. 1959.

AN ACT

Amending the act of May 2, 1925 (P. L. 448), entitled "An act relating to fish; and amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating to fish in the inland waters and the boundary lakes and boundary rivers of the Commonwealth," authorizing the use of money in "The Fish Fund" for an engineering survey of the Susquehanna River.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

The Fish Law of 1925.

Section 1. Section 285, act of May 2, 1925 (P. L. 448), known as "The Fish Law of 1925," is amended by adding, after clause (n), a new clause to read:

Section 285, act of May 2, 1925, P. L. 448, amended by adding a new clause (o).

Section 285. Fish License Fund Established.—All fees, fines, penalties, and other moneys paid, received, recovered, and collected (a) under the provisions of any law repealed and replaced by this act and now held in the State Treasury as a fund or any part of a fund separate and apart from the various purposes designated by law, or (b) that may be hereafter paid, received, and collected under the provisions of any act repealed and replaced by this act, or (c) that may be paid, received, recovered, and collected under the provisions of this act, shall be placed in a separate fund by the State Treasurer, to be known as "The Fish Fund," and shall be used solely for the payment of all expenses incurred by the Department of Revenue in procuring, issuing, or supervising the issuance of resident and nonresident fishing licenses and license buttons, and under the direction of the commission for the following purposes:

* * * * *

(o) At the discretion of the commission for the payment of necessary expenses in making a modern engineering survey on ways and means of re-opening the Susquehanna River to the passage of fish which formerly inhabited the river.

Section 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

Act effective immediately.

APPROVED—The 8th day of December, A. D. 1959.
