AN ACT

Amending the act of June 3, 1937 (P. L. 1225), entitled "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals; and amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating thereto," further regulating field meets and trials.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

The Game Law.

Section 1. Section 720, act of June 3, 1937 (P. L. 1225), known as "The Game Law," amended June 13, 1957 (P. L. 297), is amended to read:

Section 720, act of June 3, 1937, P. L. 1225, amended June 13, 1957, P. L. 297, further amended.

Section 720. Permits for Field Trials.—It shall be lawful to hold field meets or trials, where dogs are permitted to work on liberated or native wild game in exhibition or contest, provided due diligence is exercised by those directing such meet, or participating therein, to prevent the injury or killing of the game being pursued, at any time during daylight hours, excepting raccoon hounds participating in a field trial during the night time hours from sunset to sunrise, from the first day of August to Field trials.

the close of the training season as fixed by this act, or by resolution of the commission, without first securing a permit; and from the close of such training season to the thirty-first day of July after having secured a permit as hereinafter required.

Led game.

It shall also be lawful to hold field meets or trials for dogs with led game animals or with drags at any time between the sixteenth day of April and the nineteenth day of August next following after having secured a permit as hereinafter required.

Permits.

Such permits may be issued by the director upon proper application and the payment of a fee of five dollars for each such trial held on not to exceed five consecutive days. A representative of the commission shall supervise all such meets and enforce any rules and regulations of the commission governing the same.

Fee.Hunter's license not required.

It is unlawful for three or more persons to hold, or participate in, a field trial or meet without first securing the permit required by this section. Participants in a recognized field trial or meet shall not be required to be possessed of either a hunter's license or a tag while participating in such field trials.

Penalty.

Any person who shall violate any provisions of this section shall, upon conviction, be sentenced to pay a fine of twenty-five dollars and costs of prosecution for each offense.

Act effective immediately.

Section 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

APPROVED—The 13th day of July, A. D. 1961.
