Section 1402. Health Services.—* * *

(a.1) Every child of school age shall be provided with school nurse services.

* * * * *

Section 2. Section 2505 of the act is repealed.

Section 2505 of the act, repealed.

Section 2505.1 of the act, added
July 15, 1957,
P. L. 937, amended.

Section 3. Section 2505.1 of the act, added July 15, 1957 (P. L. 937), is amended to read:

Section 2505.1. State Reimbursement for Health Services.—(a) Every school district and joint school board which renders health services to children of school age shall be reimbursed by the Commonwealth on account of health services which conform to standards approved by the Secretary of Health. Reimbursements shall be paid by the Secretary of Health. The amount thereof shall be the actual cost of the medical and dental services and school nurse services as certified to the Secretary of Health, less any charges deemed unreasonable by him, but for medical services shall not for any school year exceed the sum of (1) eighty cents ($.80) multiplied by the number of children enrolled in a school for the entire school term of that school year and for whom the school district or joint school board maintains comprehensive health records as defined in section 1402, and (2) a proportionate part of eighty cents ($.80) for each child enrolled for a part of the school term of that school year and for whom the school district or joint school board maintains a comprehensive health record as defined in section 1402, [and] for dental services shall not for any school year exceed the sum of (1) forty cents ($.40) multiplied by the number of children enrolled in a school for the entire school term of that school year and for whom the school district or joint school board maintains comprehensive health records as defined in section 1402, and (2) a proportionate part of forty cents ($.40) for each child enrolled for a part of the school term of that school year and for whom the school district or joint school board maintains a comprehensive health record as defined in section 1402, and for school nurse services shall not for any school year exceed the sum of (1) three dollars and fifty cents ($3.50) multiplied by the number of children enrolled in a school for the entire school term of that school year, and (2) a proportionate part of three dollars and fifty cents ($3.50) for each child enrolled for a part of the school term of that school year.

(b) No reimbursement shall be made under this section for services for which the Commonwealth reimburses, in whole or in part, under any other section of the act to which this is an amendment. Reimbursement on account of the employment of school nurses shall [continue to] be made under [section 2505 of the act amended hereby] the provisions of this section. Reimbursement on account of health services rendered by a school district or joint school board may be withheld by the Secretary of Health unless the actual expenditures for the health services are certified to the Secretary of Health within three months after the end of the school year during which the payment for the service was made by the school district or joint school board.

(c) Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prohibit any school district or joint school board from expending for health services amounts in excess of the reimbursable amounts.

Section 4. This act shall take effect July 1, 1962. Effective date.

APPROVED—The 29th day of September, A. D. 1961.

AN ACT

To define license and regulate resident and nonresident auctioneers and apprentice auctioneers in this Commonwealth, and revising, consolidating and making the law uniform relative thereto; conferring certain powers and duties on the Secretary of the Commonwealth and on certain departments and officers of the State and local governments; providing for the keeping of records and the inspection thereof; repealing certain inconsistent laws, and providing penalties.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows: The Auctioneers' License Act.

Section 1. Short Title.—This act shall be known and may be cited as “The Auctioneers’ License Act.”

Section 2. Definitions.—As used in this act:

(1) “Goods” shall mean any goods, wares, work of art, commodity, compound or thing, chattels, merchandise or personal property, which may be lawfully kept or offered for sale, including domestic animals and farm products, but shall not include nor apply to sales at auction conducted by or under the direction of any public authority, or pursuant to any judicial order or decree, or in the settlement of any decedent’s estate, or to any sale required by law to be at auction, or to any sale conducted by or on behalf of any charitable corporation or association if the person conducting the sale receives no compensation therefor.

(2) “Person” shall mean and include an individual, firm, copartnership, association or corporation, but as applied to “association” shall mean the partners or members of any partnership, limited partnership, or any form of unincorporated enterprise, owned by two or more persons, and as applied to “corporation” shall mean the officers or directors thereof.
