AN ACT

Amending the act of May 4, 1927 (P. L. 519), entitled "An act concerning boroughs; and revising, amending, and consolidating the law relating to boroughs," authorizing ordinances and certain resolutions to be in force after attachment to the borough ordinance book, and validating certain borough records.

The Borough Code.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Subsection (a), section 1008, act of May 4, 1927, P. L. 519, reenacted and amended July 10, 1947, P. L. 1621, further amended.

Section 1. Subsection (a) of section 1008, act of May 4, 1927 (P. L. 519), known as "The Borough Code," reenacted and amended July 10, 1947 (P. L. 1621), is amended to read:

Section 1008. Recording, Advertising and Proof of Ordinances; Codification of Ordinances.—(a) No ordinance, or resolution of a legislative character, in the nature of an ordinance, shall be considered in force until the same is recorded in the ordinance book of the borough and has been advertised as provided in this article. All ordinances, or resolutions of a legislative character in the nature of an ordinance, may be proved by the certificate of the borough secretary, under the corporate seal, and, when printed or published in book or pamphlet form and purporting to be published by the authority of the borough, shall be read and received as evidence in all courts and places without further proof. All borough ordinances shall, within one month after their passage, be recorded by the borough secretary in a book provided for that purpose, which shall be at all times open to the inspection of citizens. The entry of the borough ordinance in the ordinance book by the secretary shall be sufficient, without the signature thereto of the president of council, [burgess] mayor or other person. Any and all borough ordinances, or portions thereof, the text of which, prior to the effective date of this amendment, shall have been attached to the ordinance book, shall be considered in force just as if such ordinances, or portions thereof, had been recorded directly upon the pages of such ordinance book: Provided, That all other requirements of this act applicable to the enactment, approval, advertising and recording of such ordinances, or portions thereof, were complied with within the time limit prescribed by this act.

Section 2. Section 1009 of the act, amended May 31, 1955 (P. L. 61), is amended to read:

Section 1009 of the act, amended May 31, 1955, P. L. 61, further amended.

Section 1009. Typewritten, Printed, Photostated and Microfilmed Records Valid; Recording or Transcribing Records.—All borough records, required to be recorded or transcribed, shall be deemed valid if typewritten, printed, photostated or microfilmed, and where recording in a specified book of record is required, such records may be recorded or transcribed directly upon the pages of such book of record or may be attached to such book of record by stapling or by glue or any other adhesive substance or material, and all records heretofore recorded or transcribed [by typewriter, printed, photostated or microfilmed] in any manner authorized by this section are validated. When any record shall be recorded or transcribed after the effective date of this amendment by attaching such record or a copy thereof to the book of record as hereinabove provided, the borough seal shall be impressed upon each page to which such record is attached, each impression thereof covering both a portion of the attached record and a portion of the page of the book of record to which such record is attached.

Section 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

Act effective immediately.

APPROVED—The 7th day of May, A. D. 1963.
