

while the trials are in progress under the observation of an official representative of the commission.

The person or persons designated by the committee in charge to do the shooting for such trials shall be known as the official gun or guns, and no other person shall be permitted to kill or attempt to kill any of the birds or animals released for such trials. Birds or animals so released may be killed during the above period, without regard to sex or numbers.

Before any game [killed under the provisions of this section] shall be released or killed under the provisions of this section or consumed on the premises or removed therefrom, the official representative of the commission shall attach a tag to each bird or animal [killed], such tags to be numbered consecutively and supplied by the commission at reasonable cost, and shall contain such information as the commission may require. Said tags shall remain attached to the individual birds or animals until prepared for consumption and shall not be used more than once.

It is unlawful for any person to hold, conduct, or to participate in a retriever trial before the permit required by this section has been secured; or for any person to possess or remove from the shooting grounds any birds or animals killed which have not been tagged as herein required; or for any person to sell or purchase, or attempt to sell or purchase, any birds or animals killed in conformity with the provisions of this section.

Participants in such a recognized retriever trial shall not be required to be possessed of either a hunter's license or a tag while participating in such trial.

Any person who shall violate any provisions of this section, shall, upon conviction, be sentenced to pay a fine of fifty dollars and costs of prosecution for each offense.
