Section 1. Subsection C, section 1001, act of May 5, 1933 (P. L. 289), known as the "Nonprofit Corporation Law," amended July 2, 1937 (P. L. 2838), is amended to read:

Section 1001. Voluntary Dissolution.—* * *

C. Upon the presentation of the petition, the court shall enter a preliminary decree appointing a day for the hearing of the petition and directing all persons interested in the corporation at that time to show cause, if any they have, why the corporation should not be dissolved. The petitioners shall advertise the contents of the decree once a week for two consecutive weeks in the county wherein the registered office of the corporation is located. Advertisements shall appear in a newspaper of general circulation published within the county and in the legal newspaper, if any, designated by the rules of court for the publication of legal notices; otherwise, in two newspapers of general circulation published within the county. Where there is but one newspaper of general circulation published in any county, advertisements in such newspaper shall be sufficient. On the day fixed in the decree, or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard, proof of the advertisements heretofore required shall be presented to the court, whereupon the court shall consider the petition. If the court shall be satisfied that the prayer of the petition may be granted without prejudice to the public welfare or the interests of the members of the corporation, the court shall decree that the petition is approved and that upon the recording of the petition and decree the corporation shall be dissolved. Before entering the final decree of dissolution, the court shall cause the assets of the corporation to be marshaled and the property rights to be adjudicated, either by proceedings before the court or before a master appointed by it, provided that property devoted to community industrial development, religious, literary, educational or charitable uses shall not be diverted from the objects for which it was donated, granted, bequeathed or devised. In entering the final decree, the court shall order the distribution of the property and assets of the corporation among the members entitled thereto, shall direct what disposition shall be made of any real or personal property devoted to any community industrial development, religious, literary, educational or charitable use, and shall designate the directors of the corporation, or, having proper cause, a liquidating trustee, to wind up the affairs of the corporation according to the decree of the court. Upon the recording of the petition and decree of the court in a manner similar to that heretofore specified in this act in the case of the formation of a corporation, the dissolution of the corporation shall become effective, and thereafter the directors of the corporation, or the liquidating trustee appointed by the court, shall wind up the affairs of the corporation in accordance with the decree.
