AN ACT

Authorizing cities of the first class to provide for payment of retirement benefits to retired employes without reduction on account of social security benefits.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

First class cities.

Section 1. Any city of the first class may, by ordinance, provide for the payment of retirement benefits to employes who were separated from city employment on or before January 1, 1963, and who become eligible to receive social security benefits, without reduction by reason of any social security benefit earned in covered municipal employment, and may provide that such employes shall be entitled to receive the full amount of the retirement benefits earned by them in municipal employment.

Social security benefits may be provided in addition to retirement benefits.

Section 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

Act effective immediately.

APPROVED—The 14th day of August, A. D. 1963.
