AN ACT

HB 333

Amending the act of June 24, 1939 (P. L. 872), entitled "An act to consolidate, amend and revise the penal laws of the Commonwealth," authorizing the sale of certain personal property on Sunday by persons observing another day as a day of rest.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. Section 699.10, act of June 24, 1939 (P. L. 872), known as "The Penal Code," added August 10, 1959 (P. L. 660), is amended to read:

Section 699.10. Selling Certain Personal Property on Sunday.—Whoever engages on Sunday in the business of selling, or sells or offers for sale, on such day, at retail, clothing and wearing apparel, clothing accessories, furniture, housewares, home, business or office furnishings, household, business or office appliances, hardware, tools, paints, building and lumber supply materials, jewelry, silverware, watches, clocks, luggage, musical instruments and recordings, or toys, excluding novelties and souvenirs, shall, upon conviction thereof in a summary proceeding for the first offense, be sentenced to pay a fine of not exceeding one hundred dollars ($100), and for the second or any subsequent offense committed within one year after conviction for the first offense, be sentenced to pay a fine of not exceeding two hundred dollars ($200) or undergo imprisonment not exceeding thirty days in default thereof. No individual who by reason of his religious conviction observes a day other than Sunday as his day of rest and actually refrains from labor or secular business on that day shall be prohibited from selling the above enumerated articles on Sunday in a business establishment which is closed on such other day.

The term "a day other than Sunday" as used herein shall mean any consecutive twenty-four hour period.

Each separate sale or offer to sell shall constitute a separate offense. Information charging violations of this section shall be brought within seventy-two hours after the commission of the alleged offense and not thereafter.

Section 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

APPROVED—The 19th day of July, A. D. 1967.

AN ACT

SB 67

Amending the act of August 9, 1955 (P. L. 323), entitled "An act relating to counties of the third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes; amending, revising, consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto," authorizing certain clerks of orphans' courts to appoint solicitors.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. The act of August 9, 1955 (P. L. 323), known as "The County Code," is amended by adding after section 1315, a new section to read:

Section 1316. Solicitors to Clerks of Orphans' Courts in Counties of the Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh and Eighth Classes.—In all counties of the third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes, the clerk of the orphans' court except those who are also the register of wills may appoint one person, learned in the law, as his solicitor. The solicitor shall advise the clerk of the orphans' court on all legal matters that may be submitted to him, and conduct all litigation connected with the clerk's office when requested to do so by the clerk of the orphans' court.

Section 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

APPROVED—The 21st day of July, A. D. 1967.
