

of such nature and character as to render him unfit to engage in such occupation.

Section 4. Every applicant for such license shall furnish with his application two photographs, being fair likenesses, and upon which shall be endorsed such information prescribed by the superintendent of police or chief of police as may be necessary for the identification of the said applicant. One of said photographs shall be retained by the superintendent or chief of police, and one shall be attached to a card of identification included in or issued with the license hereinabove provided for; which license and card of identification shall be produced upon request of any superintendent of police, chief of police, or any other police officer of the Commonwealth. Said identification card shall have space provided thereon, upon which, in case the holder thereof is arrested for any offense, it shall be the duty of any magistrate, alderman, or justice of the peace before whom said holder shall appear to write upon said card the date of such arrest, the charge upon which said arrest shall have been made, and the disposition made of the case by said magistrate, alderman, or justice of the peace, which notation on said card shall be signed by such magistrate, alderman, or justice of the peace.

Section 5. Upon the third conviction for any offense of the holder of any such license and identification card, it shall be the duty of the superintendent of police or chief of police issuing the same, upon information thereof coming to his attention, immediately to revoke the said license, and to require the surrender of the same and the identification card in connection therewith for cancellation.

Section 6. This act shall in no manner alter, change, or affect any existing requirement of the law with reference to securing certificates of public convenience from the Public [Service] Utility Commission or otherwise; nor shall this act in any manner whatsoever be construed to affect any provision of any existing law governing the licensing of motor vehicles.

Section 7. All acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act be, and the same is hereby, repealed.

Section 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

No. 327

AN ACT

SB 1662

Amending the act of June 26, 1931 (P. L. 1379), entitled, as amended "An act creating in counties of the second A and third class a board for the assessment and revision of taxes; providing for the appointment of the members of such board by the county commissioners; providing for their salaries, payable by the county; abolishing existing boards; defining the powers and duties of such board; regulating the assessment of persons, property, and occupations for county, borough, town, township, school, and poor purposes; authorizing the appointment of subordinate assessors, a solicitor, engineers, and clerks; providing for their compensation, payable by such counties; abolishing the office of ward, borough, and township assessors, so far as the making of assessments and valuations for taxation is concerned; and providing for the acceptance of this act by cities," changing the name of the Board for the Assessment and Revision of Taxes to Board of Assessment Appeals.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. The first paragraph of section 1, act of June 26, 1931 (P. L. 1379), entitled, as amended, "An act creating in counties of the second A and third class a board for the assessment and revision of taxes; providing for the appointment of the members of such board by the county commissioners; providing for their salaries, payable by the county; abolishing existing boards; defining the powers and duties of such board; regulating the assessment of persons, property, and occupations for county, borough, town, township, school, and poor purposes; authorizing the appointment of subordinate assessors, a solicitor, engineers, and clerks; providing for their compensation, payable by such counties; abolishing the office of ward, borough, and township assessors, so far as the making of assessments and valuations for taxation is concerned; and providing for the acceptance of this act by cities," amended December 14, 1967 (Act No. 373), is amended to read:

Section 1. Be it enacted &c., That in ¹ all counties of the second A and third class in this Commonwealth, there is hereby created a board, to be known as the [Board for the Assessment and Revisions of Taxes] Board of Assessment Appeals, which shall be composed of three members. The members of said board shall be appointed by the county commissioners of such counties to serve for terms of four years each. Vacancies happening in said office shall be filled by appointment by the county commissioners for the unexpired terms. The salary of the members of said board shall be fixed by the salary board of the county.
