

No. 153

AN ACT

SB 1431

Amending the act of August 24, 1963 (P.L.1132, No.484), entitled "An act providing for the creation, establishment and operation of community colleges, granting certain powers to the State Board of Education, the Council of Higher Education and the Department of Public Instruction; authorizing school districts, county boards of school directors and municipalities to sponsor community colleges; authorizing school districts and municipalities to levy certain taxes; providing for reimbursements by the Commonwealth of certain costs and expenses, and making an appropriation," further providing for tuition.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. Subsection (d) of section 9, act of August 24, 1963 (P.L.1132, No.484), known as the "Community College Act of 1963," amended July 9, 1971 (P.L.215, No.39), is amended to read:

Section 9. Tuition.—* * *

(d) A student who is not a resident in the area of the local sponsor of the community college in which he is enrolled and who has enrolled himself in such college without the approval of the board of trustees of the community college established in the area in which he resides, if there is one, shall pay a tuition charge which shall be equal to [three times] twice the normal tuition charge of the community college in which he is enrolled [and no State reimbursement shall be paid on account of such student]. The community college at which the student registers shall be entitled to State reimbursement on behalf of that student in the same manner as a student resident in the sponsorship area as hereinafter provided.

* * *

Section 2. This act shall take effect in 60 days.

APPROVED—The 9th day of July, A. D. 1976.
