FORMULA CLAUSES FOR FEDERAL TAX PURPOSES

Sec.

2801. Definitions.

2802. Interpretation of formula clauses.

2803. Judicial proceeding.

§ 2801. Definitions.

The following words and phrases when used in this chapter shall have the meanings given to them in this section unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

“Formula clause.” A clause that has any of the following characteristics:

(1) Refers to the unified credit, estate tax exemption, applicable exemption amount, applicable credit amount, applicable exclusion amount, generation-skipping transfer tax exemption, GST exemption, marital deduction, maximum marital deduction, unlimited marital deduction or charitable deduction, or other words relating to Federal tax exemptions, exclusions, deductions or credits where the meaning of the words is dependent on the current state of the Federal tax laws.

(2) Measures a share of an estate or trust based on the amount that can pass free of Federal estate taxes or affects the inclusion ratio for generation-skipping transfer tax purposes.

(3) Is based on a similar provision of Federal estate tax or generation-skipping transfer tax law.

“Other dispositive instrument.” Includes the following:

(1) A beneficiary designation pertaining to insurance or retirement assets.

(2) An instrument that exercises a power of appointment held by the decedent at death.

(3) A similar instrument that:

(i) expresses a decedent’s intent regarding assets over which the decedent had dispositive authority at death; or

(ii) otherwise disposes of assets as a result of the decedent’s death.

§ 2802. Interpretation of formula clauses.

(a) General rule.—Except as provided in subsection (b) and subject to section 2803 (relating to judicial proceeding), a will, trust or other dispositive instrument of a decedent who dies after December 31, 2009, and before January 1, 2011, that contains a formula clause shall be rebuttably presumed to be interpreted pursuant to the Federal estate tax and generation-skipping transfer tax laws applicable to estates of decedents dying on December 31, 2009.

(b) Exception.—

(1) Subsection (a) shall not apply with respect to a will, trust or other dispositive instrument that:

(i) is executed or amended after December 31, 2009; or

(ii) manifests an intent that a contrary rule shall apply if the decedent dies on a date on which there is no applicable Federal estate tax or generation-skipping transfer tax in effect.

(2) If the Federal estate tax or generation-skipping transfer tax applies to an estate of a decedent dying or generation-skipping transfer occurring before January 1, 2011, then with respect to each such Federal tax, the initial reference to January 1, 2011, in this section shall refer instead to the first date after December 31, 2009, on which such tax applies to decedents’ estates or generation-skipping transfers.

§ 2803. Judicial proceeding.

(a) Standing.—The decedent's personal representative, trustee or any affected beneficiary under the will, trust or other dispositive instrument may bring a proceeding to interpret a formula clause.

(b) Commencement.—A proceeding under this section must be commenced within 12 months following the death of the decedent.

(c) Considerations.—In a proceeding under this section, the court shall consider all of the following:

(1) The provisions and purposes of the will, trust or other dispositive instrument.

(2) The facts surrounding the creation of the will, trust or other dispositive instrument.

(3) The decedent's known or probable intent, based on all the facts and circumstances surrounding the creation of the will, trust or other dispositive instrument. In determining this intent, the court may consider evidence that contradicts the plain meaning of the will, trust or other dispositive instrument.

(4) The identity and interests of beneficiaries of different shares resulting from the application of the formula clause.

(d) Modifications.—The court shall have the power to modify a provision of a will, trust or other dispositive instrument in a manner that is not contrary to the decedent's probable intention in order to achieve the decedent's tax and other objectives.

(e) Effective date of interpretation or modification.—The court may provide that an interpretation or modification pursuant to this chapter shall be effective as of the decedent's date of death.

Section 4. Sections 3162, 3301(c), 3706, 5603(p) and (q), 6107.1, 6111.1, 6111.2, 7725 and 7745 of Title 20 are amended to read:

(b) Proofs of advertisement to trustee.—A personal representative who has advertised the grant of letters and received the notice required by section 7780.3(c) (relating to duty to inform and report) shall promptly send copies of the proofs of that advertisement to the trustee.

§ 3301. Duty of personal representative.

(c) Time for filing.—The personal representative shall file his inventory no later than the date he files his account or the due date, including any extension, for the filing of the inheritance tax return for the estate, whichever is earlier. Any party in interest in the estate may request the filing of an inventory at an earlier date by writing delivered to the personal representative or his attorney in which event an inventory shall be filed within three months after the appointment of the personal representative or within 30 days after the request, whichever is later. The court[, upon cause shown,] may direct the [filing of] *personal representative to file an inventory of estate assets at any time.

§ 3706. Enforcement of contribution or exoneration of Federal estate tax.

(a) Duty to pay.—Parties liable for apportionment of the Federal estate tax, whether residents or nonresidents of this Commonwealth, shall pay the amounts apportioned against them [respectively.] *at the time the Federal estate tax is due, without regard to any extension of time for paying such tax.

(b) [Duty] Power of fiduciary.—The fiduciary charged with the duty to pay the Federal estate tax may recover from parties liable to apportionment the amounts of Federal estate tax [apportionable] *apportioned to them [respectively]. *If the fiduciary pays the tax apportioned against another party, the fiduciary may recover from the other party the tax payment so advanced, together with interest of 5% per annum from the date of payment.

(c) Suspending distribution.—Distribution or delivery of property to any party, other than a fiduciary charged with a duty to pay the Federal estate tax, shall not be required of any fiduciary until [the Federal estate tax apportionable with respect thereto is paid or, if the Federal estate tax has not been determined and apportionment made, until adequate security for payment is furnished to the fiduciary making the distribution or delivery.] *that party pays the Federal estate tax apportioned to that party.

(d) Court decrees.—[The] *Notwithstanding subsections (a) and (b), the court, upon petition or at an accounting or in any appropriate action or proceeding, shall make such decrees or orders as it shall deem advisable apportioning the Federal estate tax. The court may direct a fiduciary to collect the apportioned amounts from the property or interests in his possession of any parties against whom apportionment has been made and may direct all other parties against whom the Federal estate tax has been or may be apportioned or from whom any part of the Federal estate tax may be recovered to make payment of the apportioned amounts to the fiduciary. When a fiduciary holds property of a party liable to apportionment insufficient to satisfy the apportioned Federal estate tax, the court may direct that the balance of the apportioned amount of Federal estate tax shall be paid to the fiduciary by the party liable. Should an overpayment of the Federal estate tax be made by any party or on his behalf, the court may direct an appropriate reimbursement for the overpayment. If the court apportions any part of the Federal estate tax against any party interested in nontestamentary property or among the respective interests created by any nontestamentary instrument, the court, in its discretion, may assess against those properties or interests an equitable share of the expenses incurred in connection with the determination and apportionment of the Federal estate tax. If the fiduciary cannot recover the Federal estate tax apportioned against a party benefited, the unrecovered amount shall be charged in such manner as the court may determine.

(a) Applicability.—This section is applicable if an individual:

If a trust has more than one settlor, the creditor or assignee of a particular settlor may reach the portion of the trust attributable to that settlor's contribution. However, the assets of an irrevocable trust are not subject to the claims of a creditor of the settlor solely because of the existence of the trustee's discretionary power to pay directly to the taxing authorities or to reimburse the settlor for any income tax payable by the settlor attributable to trust income or principal.

(3) After the death of the settlor and subject to the settlor's right to direct the source from which liabilities will be paid, the property of a revocable trust is subject to claims of the settlor's creditors, costs of administration of the settlor's estate, the expenses of the settlor's funeral and disposal of remains and the family exemption to the extent the settlor's probate estate is inadequate to satisfy those claims, costs, expenses and exemption and no other statute specifically exempts the property from those claims.

(g) Change in trusteeship.—[Apart from the other requirements of this section, the trustee shall send the notice described in subsection (i) to the current beneficiaries each time there is a change in trusteeship.]

(1) Each time there is a change in trusteeship of any trust, the trustee shall notify the settlor in writing of the change.

The trustee giving the notice required by this section to that appointee satisfies the trustee’s duty to give to the named current beneficiary the notice required by this section if:

- (1) the trustee notifies the appointee that the notice is being given to the appointee as representing the named current beneficiary; and*
- (2) the appointee does not decline to receive the notice in a writing [that is given] delivered to the trustee no later than [60] 30 days after receipt of the trustee’s notice.*
