Section 302. Current officeholders and vacancies.

(a) Current officeholders.—The members of Congress now in office shall continue in the office until the expiration of their respective terms.

(b) Vacancies.—Vacancies now existing or happening after the passage of this chapter and before the commencement of the terms of the members elected at the election of 2012 shall be filled for the unexpired terms from the districts established under section 301.

Section 303. Missed political subdivision.

In the event any political subdivision or part thereof should be omitted in the description of the congressional districts, the political subdivision or part thereof shall be included as a part of the congressional district which completely surrounds it. Should any omitted political subdivision or part thereof be not completely surrounded by one congressional district, it shall become a part of that congressional district to which it is contiguous, or if there are two or more such contiguous districts, it shall become a part of that congressional district contiguous thereto which has the least population.

Section 304. Duty to publish notice of redistricting.

The secretary shall publish notice of the congressional districts as established at least once in at least one newspaper of general circulation in each county in which such newspapers are published. The notice shall contain legal descriptions for all congressional districts in the county in which the publication is made. The notice shall also state the population of the districts having the smallest and largest populations and the percentage variation of such districts from the average population for congressional districts.

Section 1510. Effective date.

This act shall take effect immediately.

APPROVED—The 22nd day of December, A.D. 2011
