An ACT authorising the Court of Quarter-Sessions of Chester County to direct a Review of that Part of the State Road leading from Philadelphia to the Borough of York, which lies between Westchester and the Line dividing Chester and Lancaster Counties.

WHEREAS by an act of Assembly passed the eleventh day of April, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-three, and divers subsequent acts, a road was laid out from the city of Philadelphia to the borough of York, through Westchester, Strasburgh, and by the Blue-Rock, a return whereof was made into the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth, and afterwards the said road was opened agreeably to the marks made on the ground, and the points mentioned in the said return: And whereas in pursuance of orders made by the court of quarter-sessions in the county of Chester, a re-survey was made of that part which lies between Westchester and Strasburgh, from which it appears, that the courses and distances laid down in the return do not strike the points fixed on by the commissioners originally appointed to lay out the same, in consequence whereof difficulties have arisen: For remedy whereof,
