[ 663 ]'

Hennington, in Fairfield townfhip, any law to the contrary notwithflanding.

Sec. 30. And be it further eracted by the authority arorejaid, That the townhhip of Oxford dxford comiin the county of Philadelphia fhall be, and is phia county, hereby erected into a feparate election diftrict and the qualified electors refiding therein fhall meet and hold their general elections at the tions. Frankford Academy, in the borough of Frankford, and townflip of Oxford aforefaid.

Sec. 31. And be it further enacted by the autbority aforefaid, That the faid election diftrict, Number of and the election diftrict from which it is taken, jud tos a alowthall each of them, be entitled to three judges triat, and the of election refpectively, and no more.
diftrict from which it is taken.

CHARLES PORTER, Specker
of the Houfe of Reprefentatives. JAMES BRADY, Speaker of the Senate.
Approved-the thirty-firt day of Marchi, in the year of our Lord, one thoufand eight: hundred and fix.

THOMAS M•KEAN.

CHAPTER CCIV.

An ACT making appropriation for the improvement of certain Roads.

Şection 1. BE it enncted by the Senate and Commonwealth of Pennfluania, is General AsVol. VII.

Five thourat dollars appro. priated for opening and completing a road from Blair's gap, in Huntingdon country, to the weftern boun. dary of the Stater sembly net, and it is bereby enafied by the autbot rity of the fame, That the fum of five thouland dollars be, and the fame is hereby appropriated, for the purpofe of opening and completing a road which has been viewed and laid out in pure fuance of an act, paffed the fourth day of April, one thoufand eight hundred and five, from Blair's gap, in Huntingdon county, through the towns of Ebenfburgh, Indiana, Kittanning and Butler, to the weltern boundary of the State, which fum fhall be divided and apportioned among the feveral counties through which the faid road paffes in the following manner ; that is 10 fog, For the county of Huntingdon, two hundred and twenty dollars; the county of Cambria, eight hundred dollars; the county of Indiana one thoufand and forty dollars; the county of Armitrong one thoufand and forty dollars; the county of Butler eleven hundred and eighty dollars; the county of Beaver three hundred and twenty dollars, and the county of Mercer four hundred dollars, and the Governor is hereby authorifed and empowered to draw warrants upon the State treafurer in favor of the commiffioners of the reipective counties, for the feveral fums appropriated as aforefaid.

Sec. 2. And be it furtber eraffed by the autho-

Two handred dollars appropriated for unproving a road over the Bald-E:gle noumtain, se tho ity oforefond, That the fum of two hundred dollars be, and the fame is hereby appropriated for the purpole of improving a road over the Bald-Eagle mountain, in the townthip of Allegheny, in the county of Huningdon, which fum fhall be paid to the fupervifors of the highways for the townthip aforelaid, by the commiffoners of the county aforefaid, and the commiffioners of fuid county thall have credit therefor in the fettlement of their accounts at the treafury of the commonwealth.

[665]

CHARLES PORTER, Speakerof the Houfe of Reprefentatives,

JAMES BRADY, Speaker
of the Senate.
Approved-the thirty-firf day of March, in the year one thoufand eight hundred and fix.

THOMAS M'KEAN.

CHAPTER CCV.

An ACT to reftrain the borrid praclice of Du* elling.

WHEREAS the laws heretofore pafled to reftrain the horrid practice of duelling bave proved infufficient, and many citizens of this commonwealth, and others, have found means to evade the penalties of fuch offences, and inftigated by deadly feuds, have committed murder upon miftaken principles of honor, and have efcaped punifhment by reafon of the diffculty of procuring evidence of the facts; For wemedy whereof,

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and Houfe of Reprefentatives of the Commonzveallb of Pennfyluavia, in General Affenbly met, and it is bereby enacled by the autbority of the fame, That if any perfon within this commonwealth penaly no thall challenge by word or writing, the perfon of giving or acanother to fight at fword, rapicr, pifol or other cepting a chation deadly duct.

