

CHAPTER CXLII.

An ACT regulating township elections.

SECTION I. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this act, it shall be lawful for a majority of the qualified electors present at any meeting, held at the usual place for electing assessors or inspectors or other township officers, to change the place of holding said elections, to any suitable or convenient house best adapted for the convenience of the inhabitants of the respective townships.

How the places of holding township elections may be changed.

SIMON SNYDER, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

P. C. LANE, Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—the thirteenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and seven.

THOMAS M'KEAN.

CHAPTER CXLIII.

An ACT directing the mode of settling accounts in the Land-office, and to prevent frauds in obtaining warrants for land.

SECTION I. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall be the duty of the receiver-general of the land-office, on the settlement of any account for monies due on lands within the purchases made of the Indians, in and prior to the year one thousand seven hundred and sixty-eight, to ascertain the amount of principal and interest due at the time of passing this act upon such account, and upon the aggregate amount so found due, it shall be his duty to charge interest, until the amount of the account is discharged: Provided, That any person paying to the said receiver-general the amount of money due from him or her on or before the first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eight, or otherwise, before the said day, complying with the provisions of the act, entitled "An act to encourage the patenting lands, and for other purposes," passed the fourth day of April, anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and five, shall be charged interest only upon the principal sum due up to the time of such payment, or of executing a mortgage agreeably to the directions of the said act.

Interest to be charged on the principal and interest now due for lands within the purchases made of the Indians, prior to 1768.

Proviso in favour of those paying before the 1st of March 1808, &c.

And whereas it is the interest, as well as the duty of the legislature, to prevent frauds and impositions that may arise in taking out new warrants for lands upon which old warrants have been laid, or which have been acquired by any other office-right: Therefore,

SECT. II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That before any warrant issues from the land-office for any land within the said purchases, the person for whose use and in whose name such warrant is applied for, shall declare upon oath or affirmation, in addition to the usual proof required by the officers of the land-office, to be taken and subscribed before some one of the judges of the court of common pleas, or justice of the peace of the county in which such lands lie, or before the secretary of the land-office, that according to the best knowledge and belief of the deponent, no warrant or other office-right had issued for such land in the name of such deponent or of any person or persons under whom he claims, and if at any time thereafter it should appear that the persons deposing as aforesaid, or any of them, shall knowingly have sworn falsely, such person or persons shall suffer all the pains and penalties of perjury.

Proceedings on obtaining warrants for land, within said purchases.

SIMON SNYDER, Speaker
of the House of Representatives.

P. C. LANE, Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—the thirteenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and seven.
