AN ACT

To amend an act, approved the fourteenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws, eight hundred forty), entitled “An act concerning townships; and revising, amending, and consolidating the law relating thereto.”

Townships of the first class.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That so much of section one hundred and ten of chapter five, article one, of the act, approved the fourteenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws, eight hundred forty), entitled “An act concerning townships; and revising, amending, and consolidating the law relating thereto,” which reads as follows:—

Part of section 110, chapter 5, article 1, act of July 14, 1917 (P. L. 840), cited for amendment.

“When any township of the first class is organized there shall be elected, at the municipal election following, one township commissioner from each election district, who need not reside in the election district for which he is elected. In any such townships having less than five election districts the number of township commissioners shall be five, and the number of commissioners equal to the difference between five and the number of election districts shall be elected at large. At such election the township commissioners elected in even-numbered districts shall be elected for a term of two years, and the township commissioners elected at large and in odd-numbered districts shall be elected for a term of four years, or vice versa, as the case may be, in order that the terms may harmonize with the elections in townships organized prior to the passage of this act," is hereby amended to read as follows:—

When any township of the first class is organized, there shall be elected, at the municipal election following, one township commissioner from each election district, who need not reside in the election district for which he is elected. In any such townships having less than five election districts, the number of township commissioners shall be five, and the number of commissioners equal to the difference between five and the number of election districts shall be elected at large. At such election the township commissioners elected in even-numbered districts shall be elected for a term of two years, and the township commissioners elected at large and in odd-numbered districts shall be elected for a term of four years, or vice versa, as the case may be, and in townships not divided into election districts, two of said commissioners shall be elected for a two year term and three for a four year term, in order that the terms may harmonize with the elections in townships organized prior to the passage of this act.
