

insurance company incorporated under the laws of this Commonwealth.

Section 2. Any person violating this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), and undergo imprisonment for a period not exceeding one year, or either or both, in the discretion of the court.

Misdemeanor.

Penalty.

APPROVED—The 5th day of May, A. D. 1921.

WM. C. SPROUL.

No. 171.

AN ACT

To further amend section forty-nine of an act, approved the fifth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine (Pamphlet Laws, one hundred and ninety-three), entitled "An act entitled an act to create a Bureau of Building Inspection, and to regulate the construction, maintenance, and inspection of buildings and party walls in cities of the first class."

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That so much of section forty-nine of an act, approved the fifth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine (Pamphlet Laws, one hundred and ninety-three), entitled "An act entitled an act to create a Bureau of Building Inspection, and to regulate the construction, maintenance, and inspection of buildings and party walls in cities of the first class," which, as amended by an act, approved the fifth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and one (Pamphlet Laws, four hundred and sixty-nine), entitled "An act supplemental to an act, entitled 'An act to create a Bureau of Building Inspection and to regulate the construction, maintenance, and inspection of buildings and party walls in cities of the first class,' approved the fifth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine," reads as follows:—

Cities of first class.

Theatre buildings.

"When located on a corner lot, that portion of the premises bordering on the side street and not required for the uses of the theatre may if such portion be not more than twenty feet in width, be used for offices, stores, or apartments, provided the walls separating this portion of the theatre proper are carried up solidly to and through the roof, and that a fire-proof exit is provided from the theatre on each tier equal to the combined width of exits opening on opposite sides in each tier communicating with balconies and staircases leading to the street, in a manner provided elsewhere in this section," be, and the same is hereby, amended to read as follows:—

Part of section 49, act of May 5, 1899 (P. L. 193), as amended by section 1, act of June 5, 1901 (P. L. 469), cited for amendment.

Any portion or portions of the premises bordering on a main street, not required for the uses of the theatre may be used for offices, stores, or rooms for similar

Use of portion of building for other purposes.

Construction.

purposes: Provided, The walls, ceilings, and floors separating such portion or portions from the theatre proper are built or constructed of such fire-proof material as shall be approved by the Bureau of Building Inspection and the Fire Marshal, and that the portion or portions so used for offices, stores, or rooms for similar purposes shall be of first-class construction, and shall have no openings connecting such offices, stores, or rooms for similar purposes with the theatre proper. And also that a fire-proof exit is provided from the theatre on each tier equal to the combined width of exits opening on opposite sides in each tier communicating with balconies and staircases leading to the street, in a manner provided elsewhere in this section.

APPROVED—The 5th day of May, A. D. 1921.

WM. C. SPROUL.

—
No. 172.

A SUPPLEMENT

To the act of June one, one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws, five hundred and ninety-nine), entitled "An act authorizing the Insurance Commissioner to proceed against and to take possession of any insolvent or delinquent company, order or association transacting any class of insurance; and prescribing the method by which such insolvent or delinquent companies, orders or associations shall be dissolved and liquidated"; directing the deposit and keeping of any moneys or funds which shall come into the possession of the Insurance Commissioner or his deputies while liquidating the business of any insurance company under the authority of said act.

Insurance Department.

Act of June 1, 1911 (P. L. 599), supplemented.

Insolvent Insurance companies.

Deposit of assets.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That the Insurance Commissioner and his deputies engaged in liquidating the business of any insurance company under the authority of the act of June one, one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws, five hundred and ninety-nine), entitled "An act authorizing the Insurance Commissioner to proceed against and to take possession of any insolvent or delinquent company, order or association transacting any class of insurance; and prescribing the method by which such insolvent or delinquent companies, orders or associations shall be dissolved and liquidated," shall deposit any and all moneys or funds, which are in the form of legal tender, and which shall come into their hands in the capacity of receiver for such company, within one month of their receipt, in such banks, banking institutions, or trust companies as shall be selected for this purpose and approved by the State Depository Board from time to time, and in such amounts as said board shall direct. The same shall there remain until paid out by the Insurance Commissioner or his deputies on the order of the proper court.

APPROVED—The 5th day of May, A. D. 1921.

WM. C. SPROUL.