

Section 625. Every township of the first class shall have a general plan of its streets and alleys, including those which have been or may be laid out but not opened. Such plan shall be filed in the office of the engineer or other proper office of the township, and all subdivisions of property thereafter made shall conform thereto. No streets or alleys, or parts thereof, laid out and confirmed, shall afterwards be altered without the consent of the commissioners of the township. No person shall be entitled to recover any damages for any improvements placed or constructed within the lines of any street or alley after the same has been located or ordained on the plan provided for by this section.

Plans of streets and alleys.

Filing.

Improvements constructed within streets or alleys.

Sections 626 and 627 added.

Section 2. That chapter eleven, article one, of an act, approved the fourteenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws, eight hundred and forty), entitled "An act concerning townships; and revising, amending, and consolidating the law relating thereto," is hereby amended by adding thereto the following sections, which shall be known as sections six hundred and twenty-six and six hundred and twenty-seven:—

Section 626. That in townships of the first class, all plans, plots, replots of lands laid out in building lots, and the streets, alleys, or other portions of the same, intended to be dedicated to public use or for the use of purchasers or owners of lots fronting thereon or adjacent thereto and located within the limits of the township, shall be submitted to the board of township commissioners, and approved by it, before it shall be recorded; and it shall be unlawful for the recorder of deeds of the county wherein said land is situate to receive or record such plan unless the same shall bear thereon, by indorsement or otherwise, the approval of the board of township commissioners of the township wherein the land is situate.

Submission of plans and plots to township commissioners.

Recording.

Section 627. Any person violating any of the provisions of sections 625 and 626 of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. Upon conviction thereof, any such person shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500).

Violation.

Penalty.

APPROVED—The 16th day of May, A. D. 1921.

WM. C. SPROUL.

No. 271.

AN ACT

To prevent the laying out, opening, changing, vacating, widening, or altering, by a court of quarter sessions, of a road any part of which lies within a township of the first class, without the consent and approval of the board of township commissioners.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That in any proceedings now pending or that may hereafter be brought, in Townships of the first class.

Opening, e. v., of roads by court.

Approval of commissioners.

any court of quarter sessions, for the laying out, opening, changing, vacating, widening, or altering of a road any part of which lies within a township of the first class, such road shall not be laid out, opened, changed, vacated, widened, or altered, unless and until the board of commissioners of such township shall have passed a resolution consenting and approving thereto, and shall have filed with the clerk of said court a copy of such resolution, duly certified by the township secretary.

APPROVED—The 16th day of May, A. D. 1921.

WM. C. SPROUL.

No. 272.

A SUPPLEMENT

To an act, approved the twenty-second day of June, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one (Pamphlet Laws, three hundred and seventy-nine), entitled "An act to provide for the selection of a site and the erection of a State asylum for the chronic insane, to be called the State Asylum for the Chronic Insane of Pennsylvania, and making an appropriation therefor"; providing for the quarantine, and for the reception, detention, care, and treatment, at said asylum, of persons suffering with syphilis, and for their commitment thereto; and providing for the payment of the cost of commitment, care, and maintenance of such persons, in the same manner as insane persons.

State Asylum
for Chronic Insane.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That in addition to the reception, detention, care, and treatment of chronic insane, the "State Asylum for the Chronic Insane of Pennsylvania," erected, operated, and maintained under the provisions of an act, approved the twenty-second day of June, one thousand eight hundred ninety-one (Pamphlet Laws, three hundred and seventy-nine), entitled "An act to provide for the selection of a site and the erection of a State asylum for the chronic insane, to be called the State Asylum for the Chronic Insane of Pennsylvania, and making an appropriation therefor," shall be devoted also to the reception, detention, care, and treatment of persons afflicted with syphilis.

Reception, etc.,
of persons having
syphilis.

Duty of trustees
to provide accommodations.

Section 2. It shall be the duty of the board of trustees of said institution to provide for the accommodation of persons afflicted with syphilis who shall be sent or committed thereto, in the manner provided for in this act. Such accommodations may be provided in the present buildings or in such building or buildings as may hereafter be erected by the board of trustees in accordance with appropriations made by the General Assembly for such purposes.

Commitment to of persons afflicted.

Section 3. Any person afflicted with syphilis who is an inmate of any State hospital for the insane or any almshouse or poorhouse, may be committed to the State Asylum for the Chronic Insane of Pennsylvania by and with the authority and permission of the Board of Public Charities. It shall be lawful for the Com-