punishment for the violation of this act,' as amended," reads as follows:—

Section 2, act of March 29, 1899 (P. L. 21), as amended by act of June 4, 1915 (P. L. 839), cited for amendment.

"Section 2. The Governor of the State of Pennsylvania shall appoint a board of five examiners for the examinations of persons applying for certification under this act. Two shall be appointed from the eastern part of the State, two from the western part, and one from the central part of the State. Three of said examiners shall be certified public accountants, each holding a degree of same from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, one of whom shall be appointed for the term of one year, one for two years, and one for three years; and upon the expiration of each of said terms, an examiner shall be appointed for the term of three years. The other two examiners shall be practicing attorneys, in good standing, in any of the courts of the State of Pennsylvania. One of them shall be appointed for the term of one year, and the other for two years; and upon the expiration of each of said terms, a successor shall be appointed for the term of three years. The examination for certificates shall be based upon an examination in commercial law and general accounting; said examination shall take place in Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, once a year, in the month of November of each year, under such rules and regulations as may be adopted by the board. In no event, however, shall a special examination be given or a degree granted to any person, except by passing a regular examination as herein provided for, but certified public accountants of other States of the United States, who have practiced for the five years prior to living in Pennsylvania, may be certified, at the discretion of said board, for certificates without any examination. The fees provided by this act shall be twenty-five dollars for each applicant, from which shall be paid the actual traveling expenses of the members of the board and expenses incident to such examination, for office rent, stationery, printing, and clerk hire, a sum not exceeding three hundred dollars per annum; and if any surplus above said expenses shall remain at the end of the year, it shall be paid into the treasury of the Commonwealth. The results of such examination shall be certified to the Governor, within sixty days after said examination, and filed in the office of the Secretary of Internal Affairs, and kept for reference and inspection for a period not less than five years, the Governor to issue the certificates," is hereby further amended to read as follows:—
