No. 8.

AN ACT

Relating to fruit syrups, and prohibiting the manufacture, sale, offering for sale, exposing for sale or having in possession with intent to sell, of any adulterated or misbranded fruit syrups; and providing penalties for the violation thereof; and providing for the enforcement thereof.

Adulteration.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That it shall be unlawful for any person, firm, or corporate body, by himself, herself, itself, or themselves, or by his, her, its, or their agents, servants or employes, to manufacture, sell, offer for sale, expose for sale, or have in possession with intent to sell, any fruit syrup which is adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of this act.

Fruit-syrups.

Adulterants defined.

Section 2. A fruit syrup shall be deemed to be adulterated within the meaning of this act if it contains any added boric acid, or borates, salicylic acid, or salicylates, formaldehyde, sulphurous acid, or sulphites, hydrofluoric acid, or fluorides, fluoborates, fluosilicates, or other fluorine compounds, dulcin, glucin, saccharin, betanaphthol, hydronaphthol, abrastol, or compounds of copper, zinc, or other poisonous metals, or other added substance deleterious to health.

Misbranded fruit-syrups.

Section 3. That for the purpose of this act a fruit syrup shall be deemed to be misbranded:

Imitation of another article.

First. If it be an imitation of, or offered for sale under the name of, another article.

Labeled to deceive.

Second. If it be labeled or branded or tagged so as to deceive or mislead the purchaser.

False statement on receptacle.

Third. If the bottle or receptacle containing it or its label shall bear any statement, design or device, regarding the ingredients or the substances contained therein, which statement, design or device, shall be false or misleading in any particular.

Misdemeanor.

Section 4. Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be sentenced
