No. 102.

AN ACT

To amend section thirteen of an act, approved the nineteenth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and nine (Pamphlet Laws, forty-six), entitled "An act to regulate the practice of osteopathy in the State of Pennsylvania; to provide for the establishment of a State Board of Osteopathic Examiners; to define the powers and duties of said Board of Osteopathic Examiners; to provide for the examining and licensing of osteopaths in this State; and to provide penalties for the violation of this act," by requiring osteopathic physicians to register annually, and imposing a fee therefor.

Board of Osteopathic Examiners.

Section 13, act of March 19, 1909 (P. L. 46), amended.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That section thirteen of an act, approved the nineteenth day of March one thousand nine hundred and nine (Pamphlet Laws, forty-six), entitled "An act to regulate the practice of osteopathy in the State of Pennsylvania; to provide for the establishment of a State Board of Osteopathic Examiners; to define the powers and duties of said Board of Osteopathic Examiners; to provide for the examining and licensing of osteopaths in this State; and to provide penalties for the violation of this act," is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 13. From and after the approval of this act, no person shall enter upon or continue the practice of osteopathy in the State of Pennsylvania unless he or she has complied with the provisions of this act, and shall have exhibited to the prothonotary of the court of common pleas of the county in which he or she desires to practice osteopathy a license duly granted to him or her, as hereinbefore provided; whereupon he or she shall be entitled, upon the payment of one dollar, to be duly registered in the office of the prothonotary of the court of common pleas of said county. It shall be the duty of all persons now qualified and engaged in the practice of osteopathy, or who shall hereafter be licensed by the State Board of Osteopathic Examiners to engage in such practice in this Commonwealth, to register with the said State Board of Osteopathic Examiners as practitioners, on or before the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-six, and thereafter to register with said board in like manner annually on or before the first day of January of each succeeding year. The form and method of such registration shall be provided for by such board in such manner as will enable it to carry into effect the purposes of this act. The said State Board of Osteopathic Examiners shall be entitled to demand for each annual registration a fee of three dollars, or such other sum as shall be fixed by the Department of Public Instruction under authority of law. The fee shall in all cases accompany the application for such registration. All fees received hereunder shall, unless otherwise provided by law, be used by the said board in carrying out the provisions of this act. [and] Any person who shall practice or attempt to practice osteopathy, as defined in this act, in treating diseases of any ailment whatsoever of the human body, or who shall use any of the terms or letters,—osteopath, osteopaths, osteopathy, doctor of osteopathy, diplomat in osteopathy, or D. O.,—or any other titles or letters, under such circumstances as to induce the belief that the person who uses such terms is engaged in the practice of osteopathy, without having first obtained the license herein provided for, or contrary to the provisions of this act; or who shall, under any other term or name, practice or attempt to practice osteopathy as defined in [section eleven of] this act; or who, for the purpose of obtaining such license, shall falsely represent himself or herself to be the holder of a diploma, as herein provided,—shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof in the court of quarter sessions of the county wherein the offense shall have been committed, shall pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars, nor more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than thirty days nor more than ninety days, for each offense, either or both, at the discretion of the court: Provided, however, That nothing contained in this act shall be construed as affecting the so-called practice of medicine.

Not to practice until license has been exhibited to the prothonotary

Shall register with State Board of Osteopathic Examiners.
