No. 371

AN ACT

Prohibiting the shipping, transporting, or conveying, and the sale for shipment, transportation, or conveyance, of live pigeons for market less than six weeks of age.

Crimes.

Shipping or sale of live pigeons less than six weeks of age for market.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That it shall be unlawful for any person, copartnership, or corporation, being the owner, or any of his or its agents or employes, to ship, transport, or convey, or to sell for shipment, transportation, or conveyance, any live pigeon for market, less than six weeks of age. Any person, copartnership, or corporation violating the provisions of this act, shall, upon conviction thereof in a summary proceeding before a magistrate, alderman, or justice of the peace, be sentenced to pay a fine of ten dollars, and, in default of the payment of such fine and costs, shall be imprisoned one day for each dollar of fine and costs unpaid.

Penalty.

APPROVED—The 4th day of May, A. D. 1927.
